

Administration Reassures Business Life While Politicians Woo Voters

WASHINGTON — Is the Administration engaged in a deliberate campaign of wooing the good will of business as the first step in a rightward swing of economic policies?

Or is it anaesthetizing business in preparation for further radical surgical operations after elections?

That is the chief topic of conjecture in the Capital today.

It is a mixed picture.

In one corner, the political spokesmen are loudly and proudly acclaiming the liberal reforms of the New Deal. In the other corner the President and members of his official household, are just as industriously engaged in "reassuring" business.

That progress is being made in both arenas is unquestionable.

Despite latest Literary Digest polls, every indication points to a sweeping Roosevelt victory in the Congressional voting. The New Deal not only is likely to capture a two-thirds majority in the Senate, but hold its lines practically intact in the House.

The secret reassurances to business circles seem to be getting across. In the last few weeks commentators voicing business views have outdone themselves in announcing that reformist days of the Administration are over, and that henceforth recovery measures alone will be its aim.

From Wall Street also have poured forth a liberal flood of "inside" tips as follows:

That the President is against a Central Bank.

That after elections he will move to end strikes.

That the Administration is preparing to cut down Federal unemployment relief expenditures.

That the Brain Trusters and liberals are to be weeded out, or relegated to the background.

The facts, however, are almost the opposite. Roosevelt is not going to move drastically in either direction.

In a recent conference with some so-called radical friends, he is reported to have said:

"Wait till elections are over. We're not going to budge an inch from our present policy."

Satiated

A group of correspondents who had covered the NRA during the stirring days of its organization, called on General Hugh Johnson for a farewell chat.

The discussion turned on possible future policies of the Blue Eagle.

"General," one of the newsmen asked, "what would be the first thing you would do if you were appointed Administrator?"

"I'd resign."

Forgotten Man

Senator Bronson Cutting of New Mexico is now chief Forgotten Man of the New Deal.

Two years ago, Cutting deserted the Republican Party for Roosevelt, jeopardized his carefully built up Republican machine, made a speech which was one of the highlights of the campaign.

Afterwards Roosevelt offered him the post of Interior Secretary, expressed warmest thanks and affection, looked upon Cutting not merely as a political ally but as an old family friend.

But now it is different.

Cutting is up for reelection. He is having a hard fight. Whereas Roosevelt has covertly aided Bob LaFollette — another Republican bolter — he has not lifted a finger for Cutting. In fact, Jim Farley has been working against him.

The exact reason remains a mystery.

Defeated Hughes

Not often is the august atmosphere of the Supreme Court ruffled by the array of famous lawyers who come to plead before it. But in the case of John Francis Neylan, Lincolnian lawyer from San Francisco, it was.

The case opened most auspiciously. Charles Evans Hughes, bearded Chief Justice, looked more austere than usual. Probably he had forgotten that when he was running for President against

(Continued on Page Five.)

DAVEY TO SUE; HERBERT TOOL, NOMINEE SAYS

Declares Man is "Character Assassin" Picked by Strategy Board

DEFENDS ACTIONS

Demands Retraction of "His Falsehoods"

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—Branding the charges of Paul M. Herbert, Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, as "a most villainous and unforgivable declaration of deliberate falsehoods," Martin L. Davey, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, said today he would sue Herbert and the Republican campaign committee for libel immediately after the election unless they publicly retract the charges.

There are more than 100 prominent Republicans on the campaign committee. Davey said each would be named individually in his contemplated libel action.

REPUTES CHARGES

At the same time, Davey issued a statement designed to refute the charges Herbert made in Akron on Oct. 11, and repeated in part in Paulding-co last week about banking transactions of Davey and his companies.

Davey referred to Herbert as "a petty politician whose lack of moral sense perfectly fitted the role for which he was chosen, as the character assassin of this campaign," and charged that "his unscrupulous attack on me last week was made at the behest that Clarence J. Brown and the 'strategy board' of the Republican state campaign committee."

ADMITS DEBT

"The banking indebtedness, to which Herbert referred," Davey said in his formal statement, "I freely admit, and I offer no apologies for it. My ownership for many years of 45 shares of the stock of the City Bank of Kent is admitted. The ownership by the Davey Investment Company, beginning Aug. 1, 1931, of 435 shares of City Bank Stock is also admitted. The other statements are malicious falsehoods, which furnish the worst example of dirty politics that I have encountered in twenty-two years."

"The statement that the City Bank of Kent was for many years also practically controlled by Martin L. Davey," is a deliberate and unqualified lie.

OTTO PLEADS 'NOT GUILTY'

Gives $1,000 Bond as Franklin-Co Prosecutor Plans Early Hearing.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—Arraigned before Common Pleas Judge Henry L. Scarlett on a charge of embezzling $970.70 from the city of Columbus, City Auditor Walter E. Otto today pleaded not guilty and was held under bond of $1,000.

The arraignment of the city auditor took place during a recess in the trial of William Wright, charged with the murder of Addie Warrick.

Following Otto's arraignment, County Prosecutor Donald J. Hoskins indicated he would seek an early hearing of the city auditor's case in court. Otto has issue no statements in connection with his case other than to declare he will not resign his post.

Opposing attorneys indicated that when the case is brought to trial nearly every official at city hall probably will be called to testify.

PROGRESS IS SHOWN ON AIRPORT PROJECT

Splendid progress is being made on the new municipal airport, a state project, northwest of Circleville on land leased from S. C. Elsea between the Norfolk and Western and Chesapeake and Ohio railroads. Eighty acres comprise the lease.

Two runways are being perfected and one is almost complete. The greater part of the field has been tied for drainage with FERA workmen doing the job.

It is understood the Norfolk and Western railroad has agreed to run a ditch along its tracks to carry off some of the surface water on the east side of the field.

The project when completed is expected to cost about $23,000 with the exception of a hangar which would be placed on a slight incline at the west side of the field.

The local chapter of the National Aeronautic association is helping to supervise the project.

LEGION TO DEMAND PAYMENT OF BONUS

Police Court

Criminal courts were kept busy over the week-end with two men arrested for driving while intoxicated, a man and woman arrested for embezzlement, a man jailed for forgery, and a number of others arrested for intoxication.

Here is the "lineup": Clarence Seymour, Lancaster-pk, fined $100 and costs for driving while intoxicated. His truck struck a curbing on the Lancaster-pk throwing Nathan Snell, a bum, to the ground. Seymour was arrested by the state highway patrol and after spending the night in jail arranged to pay the fine. Snell was ordered from town.

Cloris Lytle, Columbus, fined $100 and costs on a similar charge. He was taken into custody Sunday on Route 23 north of Circleville by the highway patrol. His fine was paid Monday morning.

Ward Thompson, E. Mount-st., and Sarah Alice Rackin, Wayne-tw, were scheduled for hearings in Squire H. O. Eveland's court Monday afternoon on charges of embezzlement filed by Mrs. Grace Thompson, Watt-st. She claims Thompson and the Rackin woman took $22.50 from her a week ago. Constable Woerber was the arresting officer.

Joe Reichelderfer, 24, of South Bloomfield, will be given a hearing before Squire Eveland on charges of forgery. He was arrested Saturday by Deputy Bryan Custer after he had allegedly given a forged check for $8 to the Mack shoe store. The check was made to John Reichelderfer and signed by Henry Reichelderfer, both names being forged according to officers. A pair of shoes bought with the check was recovered.

G. T. Padgett, of Pherson, is free on bond after a preliminary hearing charged of disposing of a mortgaged automobile. The charge was filed in Eveland's court.

E. E. Moon, N. Huron-ave., Columbus, is to appear before Mayor Cady Monday evening to be tried for reckless operation of a motor vehicle on Route 23 north of this city. He was arrested on complaint of George Wright, who claimed he forced his automobile off the road.

John Irvin, a Columbus juvenile, was taken into custody by police Sunday while driving his father's automobile. The car carried fictitious license plates and is being held here until the plates are properly transferred.

Elmer Brown, of Kingston Route 1, was fined $5 and costs by Mayor Cady for disorderly conduct.

A number of others arrested and released after lectures were: Abner Leach, Charles Hott, Hubert Barnett, George Chilcote, Dewey Leach, and Ben Chilcote.

Mrs. Howard L. Bevis, of Cincinnati, whose husband is a candidate to succeed himself for judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon on Saturday, Oct. 27, at the New American Hotel Coffee shop.

Charles West, one of Ohio's most ardent "New Dealers" and orator of note, will be the principal speaker.

Mrs. Joseph Cromley, chairman of the Federated Democratic Women's club of Pickaway-co, which is sponsoring the luncheon, announced Monday that she has received word from state headquarters that in addition to the guest speaker, Mrs. Martin L. Davey and her daughter, will be additional guests.

Mrs. Glenn I. Nickerson, chairman of the committee in charge of the luncheon, reports that reservations are being made quite satisfactorily and urges all those who wish to attend to get their tickets as soon as possible as no more will be available.

Mrs. Cromley points out that the meeting is for men as well as women.

JOHN L. COX DIES IN DEERCREEK-TWP

John L. Cox, aged 71, former Deercreek-twp trustee, died suddenly Sunday after suffering for several years with asthma. He was born in Williamsport Sept. 8, 1863 and was a son of David and Henrietta Hunsicker Cox.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home with Rev. W. A. Moore officiating. Burial will be in Springlawn cemetery by C. E. Hill.

Mrs. Cox is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ona Dorn Cox, whom he married 47 years ago, and the following sisters, Mrs. Harry West, W. Main-st.; Mrs. Nellie Zimmerman, Martin's Ferry; Nancy Cox and Stella Lemle, Columbus.

Sensenbrenner's Car Strikes Tree, Damaged

Marion Sensenbrenner's Ford sedan was damaged Sunday afternoon when it backed down a steep incline against a tree in the vicinity of Old Man's cave.

Mrs. Sensenbrenner's family was out of the car seeing the sights when he tried to turn it around. The starter stuck and Sensenbrenner got out to shake the car to try to loosen the starter. He left the switch on and the car backed down the bank until it reached a tree, where it stopped.

The rear end of the car was damaged considerably.

Wave of Sympathy Grows for Bruno

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Oct. 22.—An entirely unlooked for development in the re-opened Lindbergh kidnapping case occupied the attention of New Jersey authorities today.

Attorney General David T. Wilentz admitted he was frankly alarmed at evidences of a shifft of public sympathy to the side of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, Bronx carpenter, who is held in the Hudson-co jail here awaiting trial on a charge of slaying the Lindbergh baby.

Delegates Roused By President's Statement Veterans Better Off Than Many Other Classes; Poll Shows Trend; Four Day Session Starts.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 22.—Seventy thousand gaily garbed veterans of the World War gathered here today at the sixteenth annual American Legion convention, determined to demand immediate cash payment of the adjusted service (bonus) certificates.

The bonus issue was projected into the convention by President Roosevelt's recent speech at Norfolk. The president, rather than forestalling a bonus fight, appeared to have aroused the veterans to a fighting pitch by his statement that the ex-soldiers were "better off" as a class than many other citizens.

REBUKE ACTION

A careful survey indicated the convention would endorse a resolution, calling for cash payment of the bonus, by a tremendous majority. A score of administration leaders, fighting the proposed resolution as a rebuke to Mr. Roosevelt, were in a helpless minority.

Frank N. Belgrano, Jr., of California, was headed for the national commandery. His choice became a foregone conclusion when Ray Murphy of Iowa, his principal rival, retired in his favor.

Beside the bonus issue, the convention program appeared to be cut and dried. Other resolutions will be approved, calling for deportation of undesirable aliens, registration of all aliens, preferred treatment of veterans on public work and relief projects and a universal draft act for time of war. There will be little or no contest on any of these subjects.

SELECT ST. LOUIS

A four-day program confronted the veterans. A series of speeches opened exercises this morning in Bay Front park. The annual parade will be held Tuesday. On Wednesday, the convention will pass on resolutions, including the cash bonus issue, and select St. Louis as its 1935 convention city. The new national commander will be chosen Thursday.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold its fourteenth convention simultaneously. It too will elect new national officers Thursday.

The bonus fight, however, overshadowed all other issues. A week ago, national legion leaders discussed talk of a bonus contest. They recalled the legion had been silent at Chicago last year.

Wives of Democratic Candidates Come Here For Saturday Meeting

Mrs. Howard L. Bevis, of Cincinnati, whose husband is a candidate to succeed himself for judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon on Saturday, Oct. 27, at the New American Hotel Coffee shop.

Charles West, one of Ohio's most ardent "New Dealers" and orator of note, will be the principal speaker.

Mrs. Joseph Cromley, chairman of the Federated Democratic Women's club of Pickaway-co, which is sponsoring the luncheon, announced Monday that she has received word from state headquarters that in addition to the guest speaker, Mrs. Martin L. Davey and her daughter, will be additional guests.

WOMEN CALLED

Mrs. Joe Cromley, leader of the women's auxiliary Monday that all members of the organization are to attend a meeting in the court house at 8 p. m. Tuesday, prior to the Davey address.

FLOYD EVADES OHIO CAPTORS; MAY BE SLAIN

Posses Search Woods in Wellsville Vicinity for Dangerous Outlaw

CONFEDERATE HELD

"Pretty Boy" Identified by Chief of Police

WELLSVILLE, Oct. 22.—Charles H. (Pretty Boy) Floyd, Oklahoma killer and notorious desperado, continued to evade the clutches of the law today although federal, state and county officers, armed and ready to "shoot it out," stalked the woods in this district on his trail.

Search for the outlaw, who was believed to be badly wounded, was superintended by Melvin Purvis, keen-eyed head of the mid-west division of the department of justice, in cooperation with Police Chief James H. Fultz whose statement that he was "positive" of Floyd's identification led to the manhunt.

HELD FOR MASSACRE

Meanwhile, Adam Richetti, the Oklahoma killer's henchman, was lodged in jail here by federal authorities as a suspect long sought in connection with the Kansas city union station massacre.

International News Service learned definitely today that Floyd was in this section Saturday afternoon. Shown a photograph of the fugitive, Theodore Petterson of Wellsville exclaimed:

"That's the man that offered me $10 to drive him to Youngstown, O., Saturday afternoon."

That Floyd was desperately wounded was confirmed by two men with whom he came in contact after his battle with Fultz. They are George McMillan and James H. Baum. After Richetti had been captured, Floyd fled over a hill to a highway where he encountered McMillan driving a small car.

Baum, also driving a small car, was then stopped by Floyd and compelled to drive toward Lisbon. As they neared Lisbon police officers appeared in the road and Floyd made Baum turn around and drive back toward Wellsville.

About nine miles from Wellsville Floyd jumped out of the car and fled into the woods.

SHOT THROUGH BODY
"Floyd was wounded, I know that," Baum, who is a florist, told the police. "He was suffering from a bullet wound."

Continued On Page Two

Court News

$1,766.66 COGNOVIT

W. J. Weaver and Son, a partnership, had filed a cognovit action in common pleas court today against Albert Dodd for $1,766.66 with six per cent interest, from March 18, 1932. H. E. Weaver represents the plaintiff.

REINHART ESTATE

Mrs. Susia Young, Walnut-tw, has been appointed administratrix of the estate of the late Lavina Reinhart. The property is valued at $400. Mrs. Reinhart is survived by seven children.

APPOINTED GUARDIAN

Fred Howell, this city, has been appointed guardian in probate court of Donna Jean Howell.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Frank J. Hartman, 23, 1055 Highland-st., Columbus, shoe factory employe, and Esther May Mowery, 21, Circleville. Rev. Troutman.

Clyde R. Peters, 22, 315 W. Ohio-st., laborer, and Francis Sude Martin, 19, Circleville. Rev. Roy Ferguson.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Reason Huffer, Route 2, was taken to Berger hospital Sunday for treatment. He is suffering from pneumonia. The trip was made in the Albaugh invalid car.

Miss Margaret Taltman, Route 2, was discharged from the hospital Sunday.

At the same time, Governor A. Harry Moore and Supreme Court Justice Trenchard were to confer on a possible change of venue, which would take the trial from Flemington and place it in Trenton.

A number of reasons have been advanced for such a move. One of these is that the citizens of Hudson-co feel too strongly about the case to give the defendant a fair trial. The other is that they are too bored by the entire proceedings to bring in a verdict of guilty.

TURNER IN DESPERATE EFFORT TO OVERTAKE BRITONS LEADING DERBY

American Girl Quits Race; Mollisons, too, Forced Out

Jacqueline Cochran, American aviator, the only girl pilot from the United States entered in the London-to-Melbourne derby, was forced to quit the race, Sunday, by engine trouble. She is shown above with her co-pilot, Wesley Smith. The Flying Mollisons, British couple, were forced out near Allahabad, India, by engine trouble.

Blair, Keeler to Arrange County Corn Husking Bee

Agents of Pickaway and Ross Counties To Meet With Clarksburg Committee This Evening; Contest to Be Held Near Clarksburg Friday or Saturday.

F. K. Blair, Pickaway-co farm agent, and Fred Keeler, Ross-co agent, are scheduled to meet with a committee of Clarksburg citizens this evening to arrange for a Pickaway-Ross corn husking contest either Friday or Saturday of this week.

The contest will be staged in the Clarksburg vicinity if all arrangements can be made. The definite date and location will be announced after tonight's meeting.

By staging a Pickaway-Ross contest the duties of Mr. Blair, who is busy arranging for the state meet to be held Nov. 2, will be relieved somewhat. A single committee will be able to handle the contest if staged as a bi-county affair.

Since Clarksburg's vicinity boasts a number of expert huskers it is believed proper that the bi-county meeting should be held near that town. The husking bee will be a community affair with Clarksburg, Williamsport, New Holland and Atlanta taking part.

Other contests are being held all over the state with competitors being selected to take part in the state corn day program on the Carpenter farm near Darbyville.

WORK ON W. MAIN BUILDINGS STARTS

Workmen began Monday to raze a number of buildings starting at the northwest corner of Scioto and Main-sts in preparation for construction of a modern service station to be occupied by the Given Oil Co.

All the buildings from the corner to the Justus hotel will be torn down.

Work is being pushed in an effort to complete a new two-story addition to the Laurelville school building before cold weather halts the work. The addition is estimated to cost $8,900.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hamilton, Half-ave, announce the birth of a son, Sunday.

NOW IS THIRD

Scott and Black, Apparently in Safe Lead, Off on Last Journey.

13 REMAIN IN FIELD

Americans Try Desperate Non-Stop to Darwin

BULLETIN

FOGGIA, Italy, Oct. 22.—In the first disaster of the London to Melbourne air derby, Flying Officer H. D. Gilman and J. K. C. Baines, the owner of his plane, were burned to death when their swift machine crashed in flames near here today.

Although out of the race because of a series of setbacks, Gilman was continuing on toward Australia by easy stages, and was heading out over the Adriatic toward Athens when the tragedy occurred.

SINGAPORE, Oct. 22.—Still hoping to catch the two planes leading them in the London to Melbourne air race, Col. Roscoe Turner and Clyde Pangborn of the United States roared into Singapore at 9:05 a. m. E. S. T. today and left at 10:27 a. m. for Darwin, Australia.

Turner and Pangborn refused to say whether they thought they had any chance of victory, but the fact they stopped here little more than an hour made it evident their hopes were still high.

Turner looked fairly fit, but he was fatigued and deafened from the many hours spent behind his roaring motor.

A huge crowd greeted the Americans. Hundreds of persons surged forward to get a glimpse of the fliers, who were officially welcomed by the American consul-general.

Their first thought was of food. They were given a meal of ham and eggs and mashed potatoes.

PLAN NO STOPS

"We don't know when we'll get our next meal," Turner said. The fliers hope to reach Darwin without a stop.

DARWIN, Australia, Oct. 22.—With only 2,175 miles separating them from a $50,000 prize, C. W. A. Scott and Campbell Black, veteran British airmen, got away from Darwin at 8:30 a. m. E. S. T. today, leaders in the thrilling air race from London to Melbourne.

Scott and Black limped into Darwin at 6:08 a. m. on one engine. The other failed them halfway across the Timor Sea, but they put mechanics to work immediately, and in less than 2 1/2 hours, declared themselves ready to continue the flight.

A single stop is planned at Charleville, two-thirds of the way to Melbourne.

If no setbacks occur, the Brits.

(Continued on Page Two)

DEATH SUMMONS CHESTER LEVAN

Chester Levan, 43, died at his home on Town-st., Sunday, at 12 o'clock noon.

He was an employee of the Container corporation.

He is survived by his widow, Hazel Francis Levan; three sons, Brooks, of Columbus, and Dale and Edgar of Detroit, Mich.; one daughter, Charles of Amanda and two sisters, Mrs. Amanda Hancock of Columbus and Mrs. John Miller of Stoutsville.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Church of the Brethren with Rev. Charles Essick officiating. Burial will be in Maple hill cemetery, Stoutsville, by Crites and Van-Cleve.

DUNLAP REGISTERED IN COLUMBUS, MELL UNDERWOOD CLAIMS

A challenge to Renick W. Dunlap, Kingston, G. O. P. candidate for congress, to prove his residence was hurled by Congressman Mell G. Underwood, Saturday night, at Pickerington.

Underwood charges that Dunlap has not voted at a general election in this congressional district further stating that he gave his residence in the 1932 election as 1306 Neil-ave, Columbus. The 1933 books also show Underwood claimed that he was a registered voter in Ward 15, Precinct R, Columbus.

Others in the car who were slightly hurt were Clark, Gerald Brady and Florence Taylor.

The Clark car, going north on Court-st at 1:15 a. m. Sunday, hit the automobile of Earl McGee parked in front of the Hotel Boggs.

Praises of Dye Sung at State

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—Praises of "Tippy" Dye, the Buckeye quarterback of midget dimensions, were being sung to the skies today on the Ohio State university campus as Coach Francis Schmidt prepared to send his gridiron team through their first training paces for the Northwestern game at Evanston this next week-end.

Dye, who hails from Pomeroy, was one of the mainsprings of the Buckeyes' 10-to-7 victory last Saturday over Andy Kerr's Colgate eleven. His superb generalship and dead-eye passing were in a great part the downfall of the Colgate Red Raiders.

PRaised BY SCHMIDT

It was Dye's performance when his team was training 7 to 3 that placed the Buckeyes in position to shove across the winning goal. Dye hurried a pass to Wendt and although Wendt missed the ball, it was ruled complete because of interference and it put Ohio on Colgate's 18-yard line from where they steamed across the goal.

"Tippy" ran the team like a veteran," was Coach Schmidt's tribute after the game.

While pleased over the Colgate victory, Coach Schmidt had his troubles today in a long hospital list which threatened to hamper his preparations for the Northwestern game this week-end. Among those on the injured list was Halfback Jack Smith, who, despite an injured knee, played Saturday and turned in a stellar performance. The game Saturday was not believed to have aggravated Smith's injury and he is expected to be in shape to go against Northwestern.

OTHERS INJURED

Others on the hospital list include Frank Fisch, Stan Pincura, Inwood Smith, John Bettridge, Dick Beltz, Franklin Boucher, and Dick Heekin. Most of these saw some action in Saturday's game, but only for short periods. Heekin was benched throughout the game, however.

The Ohio State squad will leave for Chicago and the Northwestern game Thursday night. A tapering off practice will be held before the game on Loyola University field Friday afternoon.

DEANS IN COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—The Dean Brothers, Dizzy and Duffy, headed for Columbus today for another session in their barnstorming campaign which will pit them and a group of other professional stars against the Negro National League All-Stars in the Red Bird stadium tonight.

Nick Cullop and Mickey Heath, from the Red Birds, will be in the supporting lineup, with Bob Kline and Bob Gibson, Tommy Leonard, Hal King, Estel Crabtree, and Gordon Hinkle among the others assisting.

The game will be the next to last for the Dean Brothers this season. They will wind up the barnstorming tour Tuesday at Pittsburgh, in time for a week's vaudeville engagement in New York, and then go to their winter home at Bradenton, Fla.

Satchell Page, rated as the best pitcher in colored baseball today, will face the Deans on the mound.

Bishop Captain

RAY HARLEY—END

When Ohio Wesleyan meets Wittenberg in its homecoming game next Saturday, Oct. 27, at Delaware, Ray Harley, veteran end from Ashabula, will be the captain of the Battling Bishops. Harley is a senior and is playing the greatest game of his career. He is strong not only in catching passes but also in defensive play. He has won two "W" letters.

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

BIG OVER SMALL

If Colgate were playing Ohio State again next week-end we'd be among the spectators in the stands—Saturday's game was a peach to watch—Both teams played hard, clean ball and used a number of thrilling offensive plays that kept the stands on edge all through the affair—It was a case of a good big team defeating a mighty good small team ***

11 OUT OF 16

It's still fun to guess the outcome of the major football games of the country—This column was correct 11 times out of 16 guesses, missing on the Columbia-Navy, Iowa-Iowa State, Ohio U.-Miami, and Pitt-Minnesota encounters *** We guessed right on Alabama over Tennessee, Yale over Brown, Notre Dame over Carnegie, Chicago over Indiana, Ohio over Colgate, Cincinnati over Ashland, Denison over Wittenberg, St. Mary's over Fordham, Michigan over Georgia Tech, Michigan State over Manhattan, Syracuse over Wesleyan, and Purdue over Wisconsin ***

ONWARD MINNESOTA

The big game of the day, of course, was that between Pitt and Minnesota in the smoky city—The Gophers, coached by Bernie Bierman and headed by Pug Lund and Frank Larson, played great ball to stop the Panthers with a single touchdown then turned on the heat for two on their own account in the final period ***

HIGH PLAYS THURSDAY

The high school plays its Central Buckeye league contest this week on Thursday—Westerville is the opposition—A teachers' meeting in Columbus causes the transfer *** Bexley now stands on top of the league standing with two victories and a tie while Grandview and Marysville are tied for second each with two victories and one defeat—Westerville is third with one victory, one defeat, one tie, Delaware has won one and lost two and the Tigers haven't won any in three starts—Only seven points have been tallied against Bexley while that team has scored only 26 times in three frays *** The Tigers have the poorest offense and defense in the league failing to score and having been scored upon 66 times for an average of 22 per game.

POLL OF STATE ATTORNEYS FAVORS DEMOCRATIC JUDGES

Judges Charles B. Zimmerman and Howard L. Bevis, who are candidates to succeed themselves on the Supreme Court at the coming election have been overwhelmingly endorsed by various lawyer's groups over the State. Judge N. Craig McBride of the Common Pleas court of Highland-co, who

COMBINED CHOIRS TO APPEAR HERE

WASHINGTON, C. H., Oct. 22.—The combined choirs of the First Baptist Church, Church of Christ, Grace M. E. church and First Presbyterian church, which will present the third annual concert in this city the night of Nov. 4 under auspices of the Cecilia Music Club, have accepted an invitation extended from Circleville to appear in that city and repeat the concert given here, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 11, at four o'clock.

The choir was invited to give the concert at the M. E. church to climax a week of celebration being staged by that church, and a large representation from all other churches is expected to enjoy the concert.

At a rehearsal this week the choir voted to accept the invitation. Rehearsals are to be held at Grace M. E. church Tuesday and Thursday night of the coming week, and it is highly important that all taking part in the choir be present for the remainder of the rehearsals, as audiences both in this city and Circleville that will pack the churches, are expected.

BUSEY WARNS OF END OF MARKETING YEAR UNDER A. A. A.

The first marketing year in the slaughtering of hogs, and the sale or exchange of hog products derived therefrom, under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, will end Nov. 4, 1934, Harry F. Busey, Collector of Internal Revenue, Columbus, announced today.

Processing taxes are levied primarily to provide funds so that payments can be made where contracts are entered into for reduction of production.

The tax is paid by the person, whether an individual, association, partnership or corporation, doing the first domestic processing. Return of tax due is made on Processing Tax Form 4 where the processor is one who purchases live hogs in connection with a regular slaughtering business, while in the case of a farmer (producer-processor) who raises hogs and in turn slaughters them for market, the return is made on Processing Tax Form 4X.

For the marketing year 1934 (Nov. 5, 1933, to Nov. 5, 1934), a producer-processor is allowed an exemption of 300 pounds of dressed weight if not over 1,000 pounds of pork products are sold during the marketing year so stated. 300 pounds of pork products are equivalent to 396 pounds of live weight of hogs. If more than 1,000 pounds are sold in the marketing year, the producer or raiser loses the 300 pound exemption. If a farmer or other person should have filed a return but neglected to do so, delinquent returns should be filed at once with Deputy Collectors H. L. Benton or Paul L. Tressler, Columbus, Ohio.

Democratic Committee

Called for November 2 Plans for the last week of the campaign will be made Friday, Nov. 2, at a meeting of the Pickaway-co Democratic executive committee, according to an announcement today by George G. Adkins, chairman.

10 DEAD IN OHIO

By International News Service Heavy traffic over Ohio's streets and roads, wet pavements, and crashes of automobiles with a train and a street car today had taken a toll of the lives of 10 persons and injured nearly 50 others. Freak accidents and two hit-skip drivers also raised the toll.

CORN IS STOLEN

Ten bushels of corn were stolen during the week-end from Ned Bell, Jackson-twp.

Heads U. S. Surgeons

Here is Dr. Donald C. Balfour of Rochester, Minn., chief surgeon of the Mayo clinic, who was elected president of the American College of Surgeons at the annual surgeons' congress in Boston.

Hauptmann Taken to New Jersey

Losing his fight to avoid extradition to New Jersey where he faces charges of murder in connection with the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, center, manacled to two New Jersey detectives, is snapped leaving the Bronx, N. Y., jail for Flemington, N. J. Hauptmann lost the extradition fight when the appellate court upheld the recent ruling of the supreme court dismissing his habeas corpus action.

FLOYD EVADES

Continued From Page One

mitt, Mo., where the gunmen threw their prisoner out of their car. Richetti denied, however, that the man who had been with him and who was wounded yesterday was Floyd. He said he had been separated from Floyd in Texarkana a year ago and that the last he had heard from the outlaw indicated he was in El Paso, Tex.

TELLS OF SHOOTING Chief of Police Fultz was certain the man he had shot was Floyd. "I recognized Floyd instantly," he said. "I pretended to be a working man. I had two of my men in plainclothes with me, walking some distance behind.

"Floyd was suspicious. He whipped out his 45 calibre gun and pointed it toward me. I got closer to him. He poked the gun in my ribs and walked alongside of me. We got to the hill, and then started down. About 100 feet along the roadside Adam Richetti showed up. He drew his gun and started firing.

"I whipped out my gun and shot Floyd right in the stomach. My two men meanwhile had got around and caught Richetti.

"Floyd ran up the hill, hauled out a machine gun and started firing down at us. One of the bullets struck me in the leg."

Another wounded Grover Potts, one of Fultz's men.

The gun battle occurred following a search by Fultz for robbers who held up the Tiltonville bank and escaped with $500.

The Kansas City massacre, which government will lay at the door of Richetti and Floyd, occurred on June 17, 1933, in front of the Union station in Kansas City. It resulted when an attempt was made to rescue Frank Nash, an escaped convict and friend of the late Verne Miller, who was being transported to Leavenworth penitentiary.

As Nash was put into a motor car, flanked by detectives, in which he was to have been taken to Leavenworth another car pulled alongside and the officers were ordered to put up their hands. Instead they started firing, the would-be rescuers returning the shots. When the smoke of battle cleared away it was discovered that Nash had been accidentally slain along with four of his captors. The officers killed were Otto Reed, McAlester, Okla., Chief of Police; R. J. Caffrey, department of justice agent, and two Kansas City police detectives, William J. Grooms and Frank E. Hermanson.

Purvis arrived here late yesterday to direct the search for Floyd. Later he was joined by about twelve department of justice agents from Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Columbus and Detroit.

MURDERER FLEES

WARREN, Oct. 22.—A $1000 reward for the capture, "dead or alive," of Elmer E. Martin, who "cracked" the Trumbull-co jail here, was posted today by county commissioners.

Meanwhile, the search for the 38-year-old Warren road house proprietor spread to five states, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana.

Authorities revealed that the fugitive, whose first degree murder trial was to have started today, was wanted in Pennsylvania for a jail break at Bellefonte. Chicago police also want him, police said.

Branding a pistol with which he threatened Turnkey James Jones and two deputies when Jones opened his cell door to permit Frank Boyle, attorney, to enter, Martin forced his way to the jail office. There he locked the deputies in the bull-pen and made good his escape.

Mrs. I. D. Smith and children, Mary Jane and David, of Petersburg, W. Va., returned Monday to their home after spending the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Groce, E. Union-st. Mr. Smith and sister, Mrs. Hopkins Van Meter, were here for a week-end visit and motored Mrs. Smith and children home Monday.

12 KILLED IN PACIFIC GALE

80-Mile Wind Subsidies As Portland-Seattle Districts Are Stricken.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22.—The lashing fury of near torrential rains and an 80-mile gale which whipped the Washington and Oregon coast for 24 hours claiming twelve lives subsided today.

The freighter Floridian, which flashed a distress signal, that she was being buffeted onto treacherous rocks five miles north of the mouth of the Columbia river, advised late last night she had anchored off the lighthouse during the height of the storm and was proceeding under her own power to Portland.

While racing to the aid of the Floridian, the coast guard, cutter Haida rescued two members of a fishing boat crew off Point Wilson, Wash. Five others in the crew perished in the mountainous seas. In Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christensen were electrocuted when the gale blew a high tension wire across their radio antenna which they were repairing.

Lou Kin, 37, a Chinese, was killed in Seattle when the three upper stories of a five-story rooming house were crashed in by the howling gale.

In Astoria, Carl Packow, 25, a duck hunter, was drowned when his rowboat capsized in the Lewis & Clark river.

AIR DERBY

(Continued From Page One)

ish airmen will be easy winners. At the time of their departure, their nearest rivals, K. D. Parmentier and J. J. Moll of Holland, flying a huge American Douglas transport plane, had not even reached Darwin.

Col. Roscoe Turner and Clyde Pangborn, the leading American entrants, had arrived at Singapore.

SET NEW RECORD

Clipping more than four days from the previous record for the same journey, Scott and Black swept into Darwin at 6:08 a. m. (EST) today.

One of the motors of their huge De Havilland comet, failed over the Indian Sea, and they had to fly blind through heavy rain clouds.

The ten other planes still in the race, making a total of thirteen survivors out of the original twenty which started from Milleden airport near London at 1:30 a. m. E. S. T. Saturday, were scattered from Athens eastward.

Chances were more or less evenly divided for the handicap race, but the speed contestants were apparently reduced to three.

Besides Turner and Pangborn, but one American team was left in the marathon. John Wright and John F. O'Leary, the Massachusetts airmen, were speeding from Nicosia, Cyprus, toward Aleppo, lunched with a number of other contestants in the handicap contest.

Of the 20 planes which originally started from London, seven dropped out enroute either because of mechanical difficulties or loss of time which made their positions hopeless.

MOLLISON'S OUT

Among those who failed were James and Amy Mollison, premier British fliers, who retired at Allahabad owing to a series of bad breaks which beset them when they were far out in front.

ABDUCTOR'S WIFE TO STAY IN JAIL

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Frances Robson, wife of the kidnaper of Mrs. Alice Stoll, is "safer in jail" and no attempt will be made to obtain her release on bond, Clem Higgins, her attorney, announced here today.

"Her life is in danger as long as her husband is at large," declared the counsel for the woman who is charged with aiding her husband and her father-in-law in the abduction plot.

Bond of $50,000 was ordered fixed for Mrs. Robinson and Thomas H. Robinson, Sr., of Nashville, by United States District Judge Charles I. Dawson. The younger Robinson will be held without bond when he is captured. Mrs. Robinson will be arraigned here Tuesday.

GRASS ON FIRE

Grass caught fire in the backyard of the residence of the Wendell Boyer Monday afternoon. No damage was done.

FOUR BIG FIELD TRIALS

COON, RABBIT, FOX and BIRD DOGS

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28

Starting at 7 A. M.

Auspices Fairfield County Fish and Game Ass'n.

LANCASTER, O.

Everybody Welcome.

New Idea: Swimming to School

Going to school in bathing suits is the latest fad in southern California. The idea was born of necessity after a heavy torrential rainstorm struck the area, flooding cities and towns. Attired in bathing suits, Kenneth Bennett and his sister, Kitty May, are pictured wading to school at Long Beach, while holding their books on their heads.

Kidnaper's Wife at Hearing

Three poses of Mrs. Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., wife of the man hunted as the kidnaper of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, as she appeared when taken before United States Commissioner Eugene M. Dailey at Louisville, Ky., on a charge of conspiracy to violate the "Lindbergh law." Her bond is $50,000.

SOCIETY

Miss Helen Crist, Editor, Phone 551

KATHRYN WALTERS MARRIED SUNDAY

Miss Kathryn Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Walters, of Winchester, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Victor L. Burkholder, of Beaumont, Texas, at 12:30 p. m. Sunday at Trinity Lutheran church with Rev. George L. Troutman reading the service in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Miller.

The bride was attired in a cartoc suit trimmed in beaver fur with which she wore brown accessories.

Mrs. Burkholder is a graduate of Salt Creek twp. high school and attended Capital university, Columbus, where she was a member of Kappa Sigma Theta.

Mr. Burkholder also attended Capital university. He received his professional education in the Cleveland college of embalming at Western Reserve university, where he was graduated in October 1932. While attending there he became a member of the honorary fraternity Kappa Kappa Psi.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Beaumont, Texas, where Mr. Burkholder is employed with Pipkin and Brulin Co. funeral parlors.

They will reside at 902 Broadway, Beaumont, Texas.

ORR'S CELEBRATE 45TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A happy event was the celebration of the forty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Orr, of Kingston, Sunday.

The seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Orr and their families arrived at the Orr home at the noon hour for a family three course dinner. Centering the main table around which was seated the immediate family, was a huge silver bowl of yellow chrysanthemums. Yellow candles in silver holders lighted the table.

Following the dinner an interesting account of the Orr-Lutz wedding, which took place at the ancestral home of the bride's father, Col. Isaac Lutz was read. This ceremony was performed before 125 guests by the Rev. Samuel Crosby; the newspaper clipping was written by Lillian Darst for a Circleville paper.

Photographs were taken of the family during the course of the afternoon and congratulations were received on this eventful day by the honored couple and their children. Judge and Mrs. Stanley Orr of Cleveland; Dr. and Mrs. Earl P. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson B. Bitzer of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Johnson this city; Mr. and Mrs. Daird N. Bennett, and Miss Virginia Lee Orr of Kingston.

Fifteen grandchildren were also invited to share in the celebration with their parents and Mr. and Mrs. Orr who are active and in excellent health.

TWO ARE HOSTESSES AT BRIDGE SATURDAY

Miss Helen Steele, S. Scioto-st., and Miss Mary Crist, N. Court-st., entertained a group of nurses at an evening bridge party at the latter's home, Saturday.

Five tables of cards were assembled and when tallies were added favors went to Miss Angela Andres of Columbus, Mrs. Malcolm Parrett and Miss Katherine Brennen. A salad course served after the game brought the evening to a close.

Guests were Mrs. Ray Eyerman, Mrs. Paul Brown, Misses Angela Andres, Ruth Lee, Elsie and Alice Stemen, Helen and Evelyn Brigel of Columbus; Miss Mildred Haid and Miss Ethel Myers of Delaware; Miss Esther Riegel of Ashville; Miss Lois Neff and Miss Pauline Thomas of Stoutsville; Miss Irene Baird of Williamsport; Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Katherine Brennen, Mrs. Aaron Lampe, Mrs. Malcolm Parrett, Miss Ethel Kirchofer and Mrs. Forrest Short. Misses Elsie and Alice Stemen remained for a week-end visit with Miss Crist.

25 MEMBERS OF SEWING CIRCLE GO TO COLUMBUS

Twenty-five members of the Merri-makers sewing circle of the Eastern Star motored to Columbus, Saturday afternoon, to meet with Mrs. Noah Weaver at her home on Fairfax-rd.

Enjoying the delightful social afternoon were Mrs. George Foerst, Mrs. George Hammel, Mrs. Lester Coate, Mrs. Robert Denman, Mrs. Noah Spangler, Mrs. W. S. Gerhart, Mrs. Hervey Sweeney, Mrs. E. S. Neuding, Mrs. Germain Joseph, Mrs. Earl Hilyard, Mrs. G. H. Adkins, Mrs. G. L. Schiear, Mrs. Leslie May, Mrs. Charles Dresbach, Mrs. Frank Marlon, Mrs. E. I. Gephart, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Mrs. E. S. Shane, Miss Virginia Marion, Miss Essie Rober, Mrs. O. J. Tovers, Mrs. Carl Bennett, Mrs. Earl Price, Mrs. Robert Lilly, and Mrs. Ella Hornbeck.

Mrs. A. L. Brown, of Columbus, was a guest of the circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester George, Mrs. J. S. Morris and Miss Iona Miller returned Monday from a visit in Winston Salem, N. C., where they were guests of Mr. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin George and Mrs. Morris' daughter, Mrs. Forest Tomerson and Mr. Tomerson.

Personal Loans $25 To $1000

I give just as much time and attention to the small borrower who only needs $25.00 as I do to the person who applies for $500.00 or $1000.00. Every loan applicant is assured a courteous, attentive interview.

THE CITY LOAN
132 WEST MAIN ST.
CIRCLEVILLE

In Romance or Just Friends?

William Powell and Jean Harlow, prominent stars of the screen, have been engulfed in a pool of reports and rumors since they began to attend functions, social and otherwise, together in Hollywood. Some of the reports hint at a romance, but Powell and Jean insist they are just friends. They are shown attending a recent wrestling match in the cinema capital.

ANN STORY, BRIDESMAID AT FRIENDS WEDDING

Miss Ann Story, of Washington C. H., granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Howard, E. Main-st., was bridesmaid at the church wedding of Miss Kathryn R. Persinger, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carey Persinger, of Washington C. H., and Mr. M. Grove Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Davis, also of Washington C. H.

The wedding took place Thursday at 3 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church in Washington with Rev. J. Stanley Mitchell reading the service.

The bride and her bridesmaid have friends in this city having visited here a number of times.

Joseph Campbell was best man and ushers were Richard R. Willis, Willard H. Perrill, Hiram J. Hitchcock and David S. Craig Jr., of Columbus.

A reception followed the wedding and the couple left on a motor trip through Virginia to Washington D. C.

Upon their return they will reside at the beautiful country home of the bridegroom near Washington on the Baron-Steuben highway.

BOOKWALTER-KREIDER NUPTIALS AT KINGSTON

Miss Dorothy Bookwalter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Bookwalter, of Kingston, became the bride of Claude Kreider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Kreider, near Tarlton, Thursday, Oct. 8, at a beautiful home wedding.

The ceremony was read at 4 o'clock before an improvised altar by Rev. Paul M. Niswander.

Miss Elizabeth Umsted played a program of nuptial music preceding the service.

A reception followed the nuptials after which the couple left on a trip.

PICKAWAY-CO REPRESENTED AT YOUTH CONFERENCE

Leaders of youth of Philadelphia, Pa., Cambridge, Mass., Chicago, Ill., Dayton, Cleveland and Columbus, together with throngs of young people made the eighth annual youth conference at Lakewood Methodist church, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the largest and most inspiring meeting of its kind held since the organization of the youth of the city.

The addresses and discussions of the conference centered around the following subject: "Christian Youth building a New World." The challenge to youth was this: "The trail lies ahead, then follow ye who dare."

Pickaway-co was represented at the conference by the orchestra of the county youth division and delegates from several churches. Among those who attended were young people from the Presbyterian, Methodist, and United Brethren churches in Circleville; St. Paul's Evangelical church, Hedges chapel, Ashville U. B., Emmitt's chapel, and Williamsport M. E. church. All of the delegates were delightedly entertained in private homes and every courtesy shown them.

The next youth conference will be held in Dayton in 1934. It is hoped even a greater number of young people will be able to attend.

In the Pickaway-co group at the conference were Mrs. Bernard Young, county director; Thomas Heffner, president of the county division; Elizabeth Reber, vice president; Ralph Delong, treasurer; Hazel Wolford, secretary; Betty Scothorn, orchestra director; Betty Lee Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McClure, Ann Reber, Homer Reber, Jean Balthaser, Maxine Canter, Jean Beery, Vera May Zanglein, Dano Estelle, Lawrence

Calendar

MONDAY

Monday club to meet at 7:30 p. m. The Twentieth Century Music club of Mt. Sterling will present the program.

TUESDAY

Circleville chapter Order of the Eastern Star has regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. All past matrons will be guests of honor. Program and social hour will follow the business.

THURSDAY

Loyal Daughters class of the United Brethren church has Hallows'en party at the home of Mrs. Charles McAllister, E. Franklin-st., at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Stanley Goodman will be assisting hostess. Business and Professional Women's club have dinner meeting at 6:30 p. m. in the club rooms. A program in charge of Miss Elma Rains will follow the dinner.

Ladies' Aid of the United Brethren church meets at 2 p. m. at the Community house. Mrs. Bertha Walker is program chairman.

FRIDAY

Washington Grange has regular meeting at Washington-twp school at 7:30 p. m.

Women's Christian Temperance union has postponed monthly meeting one week.

SATURDAY

Captain Jonathan Alder chapter Daughters of 1812 will have an all-day meeting with a covered-dish luncheon at 12 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Nevill, 195 W. High-st. This will be the last meeting of the year. All members requested to attend.

Wolford, Paul, Wayne, Philip and George Wilson, James Boggs, Dorothy Howell, Montford Kirkwood, Robert Vandervort, Eleanor Vandervort, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Horn, Jr., Ned Hardin, Dick Plum, James Mowery, Rosemary Boggs, Franklin Crites, Mary May Haswell, Marvin Leist, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Dumm, Marvin Dumm and Mrs. George Hunsicker and a group of four boys from Williamsport.

17 LOCAL PERSONS ATTEND LEAGUE MEET

Seventeen members of the Luther league of Trinity Lutheran church motored to St. Paul Sunday for the fall meeting of the Scioto and Hocking Valley Luther League association.

During the business transactions in the afternoon session of officers were elected. Harold Boyer of Canal Winchester was named president; Gladden Troutman, this city, vice president; Miss Mary Crist, this city, secretary, and Mr. Floor of Lockbourne, treasurer.

Dr. Otto Mees, president of Capital university, Columbus, gave the address at the evening session. His subject was "Youth and Its Perplexing Problems."

PERSONALS

Judge and Mrs. Stanley L. Orr, of Cleveland, were Saturday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Johnson, Northridge-rd.

Mrs. C. D. Closson and daughter, Miss Catherine, N. Pickaway-st., left Saturday for Charlotte, N. C. to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Harris and Mr. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bern Shaker, Mingo-st., and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, E. Franklin-st., left Sunday on a motor trip to West Liberty, Ky., where they will visit Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. A. J. Eblevins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shasteen and daughter, Bernice, E. Union-st., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leeper in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Haswell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Noggle, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sampson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Steely of Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Betzhart and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Abbott, of Scottsburg, N. J., visited Sunday with the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Betz of Washington-twp.

Mrs. Burt Irwin, of Toledo, returned Monday to her home after spending several days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davidson, Watt-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Teegardin, of Columbus, visited with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. B. Work and Mr. Work, N. Court-st., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnhill, N. Court-st., had as their guests Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross of Athens.

Mrs. Mary Bower, Pleasant-st., left Monday morning for Oshkosh, Wis., where she will attend the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Federation of the American Lutheran church. She is delegate from the Ladies' society and Von Bora society of the local Lutheran church.

TWO ATTEND DEMOCRATIC LUNCHEON IN COLUMBUS

Mrs. Joe Cromley, chairman of the Federated Democratic Women's club of Pickaway-co, and Miss Nelle Oesterle, both of Ashville, attended a Democratic luncheon at one o'clock, Monday, in the Hall of Mirrors at the Desher-Wallick hotel, Columbus.

This was a special meeting of the state central committeewomen, executive committeewomen, members-at-large, supervisors and women county chairmen and headquarters staff.

Mrs. Izetta Jewell Miller from the National Speakers Bureau at Washington D. C., was the guest speaker.

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED... NOW

Note Threatening Gloria Vanderbilt Investigated

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A heavy police guard was being maintained today at the home of Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt.

The guard was established around the house when a letter threatening Mrs. Morgan's ten-year-old daughter, Gloria, for whose custody Mrs. Morgan and the child's aunt, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, are battling in the courts, was received, detectives revealed.

The complete text of the letter was not obtainable, but police said it read approximately as follows:

"If you value the life of your child do not fail to meet me in front of the Metropolitan theatre in Brooklyn at 10:30 p. m. Friday without fail. I'll be waiting for you. If you do not keep the appointment, you will hear from me again."

No signature appeared on the note, but in its place were two circular symbols resembling those found on the Lindbergh ransom notes.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was instructed in the note to "keep powdering" her nose so that the writer might recognize her.

Mrs. Vanderbilt turned the note over to police immediately and it was decided to have a policewoman, resembling Mrs. Vanderbilt, keep the appointment.

She stood at the entrance to the theatre, powdered her nose as instructed, but no one appeared to recognize her, nor did anyone attempt to speak to her.

Under New Management

Prescription Service
Drugs—Fountain
Sundries,
Temple Drug Store

Charles P. Miller, Prop.
Masonic Temple

BROTHER

WANTS

A

TELEPHONE!

Our
Roll Special
for
TUESDAY
AND
WEDNESDAY

MAPLE NUT ROLLS

20c doz.
WALLACE'S BAKERY

127 W. Main St.

Copyright, 1934, B. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

...AT TODAY'S PRICE, THE BIGGEST WASHER VALUE
YOU CAN BUY

When you compare Maytag quality and price with any other washer you see why the housewives of this nation have bought more Maytags in one half of 1934, than during the whole year of 1933. ■ This is proof that American women today are insisting upon genuine quality. ■ Visit the Maytag dealer and see this Maytag for yourself.

For homes without electricity, any Maytag may be had with Gasoline Multi-Motor at slight additional cost.

THE MAYTAG COMPANY
MANUFACTURERS
FOUNDED 1892 NEWTON, IOWA

Maytag

10-11-34

TERMS
$5 Down, $1.25 Week.

Maytag Washers

Sold in Circleville By

PETTIT TIRE & BATTERY SHOP
130 S. Court St. Phone 214.

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED... NOW

WHEN YOU FEEL
"ALL IN"

CRAWFORD BURTON...gentleman rider...twice winner of the Maryland Hunt Cup...dean of the strenuous sport of steeplechase riding...and a Camel smoker,

HOUSEWIFE. Mrs. Charles Daly says: "Camels pick up my energy when I feel tired, and they have a mild, delicate flavor that a woman likes."

AIR HOSTESS. Miss Marian McMichael: "When the run is over, my first move is to light a Camel. A Camel quickly relieves any feeling of tiredness."

SPORTSMAN. Rex Beach, famous fisherman, says: "When a big fellow is safely landed, I light a Camel and feel as good as new."

Have you ever tried this enjoyable way of heightening energy?

Crawford Burton, the famous American steeplechase rider, is speaking: "Whether I'm tired from riding a hard race, or from the pressure and tension of a crowded business day, I feel refreshed and restored just as soon as I get a chance to smoke a Camel. So I'm a pretty incessant smoker, not only because Camels give me a 'lift' in energy, but because they taste so good! And never yet have Camels upset my nerves." Note these important points: that Camels taste so good. And that they make available your stored-up energy.

Science tells us that Camel's "energizing effect" has been fully confirmed. Try Camels yourself. You can smoke them constantly. For Camels are made from finer and MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS. They never taste flat...never get on your nerves,

CAMEL CARAVAN with Glen Gray's Casa Loma Orchestra, Walter O'Keefe, Annette Hanshaw, and other Headliners—over WABC-Columbia Network.

Tuesday, 10 p. m. E. S. T.—9 p. m. C. S. T.—8 p. m. M. S. T.—7 p. m. P. S. T. Thursday, 9 p. m. E. S. T.—8 p. m. C. S. T.—8 p. m. M. S. T.—7 p. m. P. S. T.—9:30 p. m. M. S. T.—8:30 p. m. P. S. T.

TOBACCO MEN ALL KNOW:

"Camels are made from finer, More Expensive Tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established in 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established in 1894.

Published evenings, except Sunday, by THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Inc.

Karl J. Herrmann, Manager.

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER

MEMBER

Ohio Newspaper Association
International News Service
King Feature Syndicate
Ohio Select List
Bureau of Advertising
NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
JOHN W. CULLEN CO.
No. 8 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.
501 Fifth Ave., New York City
General Motors Building, Detroit, Michigan

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week, $5 per year, in advance. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory, per year $3; Zones one and two, $4 per year, beyond first and second postal zone, per year $5.50.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville as Second Class Matter.

Liking for Good Books

THERE is something disarming to the critical spirit, even at its fiercest, in the subject of children's reading. It is closely knit up with the most precious early memories of most parents and in one to which the parent with the well-being of the child at heart must give much serious thought during formative years.

At all times of the year there unwind before teachers, librarians and others acquainted with books a constant procession of frankly bewildered parents. Vaguely they feel that their children are not reading the right books and very often they lead a vain quest for the "right" literature.

It is more than possible that the puzzled parents are reading the wrong books themselves; but, urged on by a lovely and pathetic instinct akin to that impulse which causes father and mother to slave and sacrifice for their children, they want their progeny to avoid their mistakes, read only the best books and be the better for it.

No parental persuasion is necessary to create in the child mind an interest in the fairy tale and the school and boy and girl come naturally by their love for romance and adventure. It is adolescent youth that needs wise and tactful guidance in the selection of reading matter.

A fondness for good books doesn't just happen. It must be cultivated in the child, as well as in the adult who did not acquire it in his youth or lost it in the transition from youth to maturity. Homes with good libraries well-read by adult members of the family seldom are the scene of juvenile revolt against helpful reading.

Some men are well-to-do because they are hard-to-do.

Oh, for the good old days when your note was good because the banker liked you.

SCHOOL DAYS
THE LITTLE BROWN SCHOOL HOUSE

1. What Apostle killed himself?
Answer: Judas Iscariot.
2. What kind of rock is woven into cloth, and why?
Answer: Asbestos, because it is incombustible.
3. What is the unit of weight used in weighing precious stones?
Answer: The carat (3.17 grains)

Democratic Ticket

State and County

For Governor
MARTIN L. DAVEY
For Lieutenant Governor
HAROLD G. MOSIER
For Secretary of State
GEORGE S. MYERS
For Treasurer of State
JOSEPH T. FERGUSON
For Attorney General
HERBERT S. DUFFY
For U. S. Senator
VIC DONAHAY
For Congressman-at-Large
CHARLES V. TIJAN
STEPHEN M. YOUNG
For Representative to Congress
MELL G. UNDERWOOD
For State Senator
WILLIAM I. SPANGLER
AUGUST W. WEBER
For Rep. to Gen. Assembly
CLARK K. HUNSCICKER
For Clerk of Courts
ARTHUR L. WILDER
For County Commissioner
JOHN W. HAY
For County Auditor
CLIFFORD M. WHITE
For County Recorder
MARION ROWE LUTZ
For County Treasurer
ROBERT G. COLVILLE
For Sheriff
CHARLES H. RADCLIFF
For Coroner
C. E. BOWERS
JUDICIAL TICKET
Judge Supreme Court
HOWARD L. BEVIS
Judge Supreme Court
(Full Term)
N. CRAIG MCBRIDE
CHARLES B. ZIMMERMAN

The Unofficial Observer

"DEATH SONG"
by JOAN CLAYTON AND MALCOLM LOGAN

CHAPTER XXIV

The two quarrelsome inseparables, Clendening and Cross, were among the witnesses summoned. Cross, looking very healthy, sought my sympathy at once.

"It's absolutely inconsiderate, making me come all the way up here!" he complained. "They should have held the inquest at the cottage, if they had to hold one at all, don't you think so, Mr. Fowler?"

"They probably won't keep you more than a few minutes," I said.

Clendening interrupted with a short, sardonic laugh.

"It won't hurt a big fat hulk like you," he said. "I wish my heart was as good as yours."

"If yours were as bad as mine, you'd probably be dead!" Cross retorted angrily. "Why, the specialist in New York told me—"

"I know what he told you, Milton. My lord, I've heard it often enough! He probably told you you had a bad heart just to get rid of you."

A deputy sheriff stepped through the door of the manager's office and called, "Mr. Cross! Mr. Cross!"

"You don't have to yell at me," Cross replied with great dignity. "I'm coming."

The crowd made way for him and he walked to the door at his usual slow, timorous gait. Clendening sat down in a chair. He was pale and his respiration was rapid.

"What's the news of Lakeside?" I asked.

Clendening grinned. He took off his glasses and began to polish them. His eyes looked strange and unseeing without the spectacles.

"What do you mean?"

"That record means something! I don't know what yet, but there's some reason that particular record was on the phonograph when we found Vail. I've been studying the words."

"I copied them all before Cross got sore and smashed it," Clendening said.

"You think there's some significance in the words?"

He nodded solemnly. "It's there, all right. Sometimes I seem just about to understand it. He sighed. "But it always gets away from me."

Clendening's name was called. "Tell Hilley to look into it," he said and then he went to give his testimony. Cross went directly to the portico in back of the building, got in the waiting bus and was driven back to his cottage, looking as though he expected to be fatally stricken. I saw Ruxton on the other side of the foyer and went to join him.

"How are you?" I asked.

"Very well, thank you," he replied. He did not look it, but it was one of the conventions of the sanatorium that most patients never admitted to feeling badly. Ruxton sat with his chin in the palm of his hand, and he glanced away from me the moment he had spoken. Apparently he did not want to talk. I respected his wish and left him.

I smiled as I thought of Clendening's rather childish belief that the banal words of Vail's favorite song had some hidden and significant meaning. But, as no news was too trivial for Mark, I decided to repeat it to him. Presently I went outside, lit a cigarette and began to stroll around the grounds. As I passed Anderson's office I could see the several reporters sitting by the window. They were all leaning forward, looking very alert, and I wondered how much of the truth they were hearing. Later I learned that

Finn and the district attorney had conspired to present the case very cleverly, stressing Joe's tenuous connection with it and passing very lightly over the inexplicable circumstance of the photograph. The exchange of rooms between Vail and Ruxton was not even mentioned, but much was made of Joe Barker's acquaintance with Felipa and Felipa's flight.

The verdict of the jury, returned late in the afternoon, was that Vail died at the hands of some person or persons unknown and that Joe Barker had died by his own hands. The implication was exactly what Anderson had wanted: that the evidence against Joe was not legally conclusive, but that there was little reason to doubt that he was the murderer. That evening we learned that Finn considered the case closed and was leaving the sanatorium the next day.

Dave Finn was not an intelligent man, but he had the shrewdness, the talent for survival, common to politicians. The management of Sherwood Forest Sanatorium had wanted the investigation of Vail's murder closed as quickly as possible. Recognizing the political importance of that most anxious to oblige, and Joe's death had given him his opportunity. The inquiry was unofficially closed. Nevertheless, Finn was not at all convinced that Joe had murdered Seifert Vail, and though he concealed these doubts from the sanatorium officials, he did not want to leave without providing against possible unexpected developments.

It was natural that he should go to Mark for assistance. The day after the inquest, before he and his deputies went back to town, he made a quiet and hurried visit to Mark's room. Mark told me about it, imitating the sheriff's heavy voice and slyly exaggerating Finn's important official manner.

"I'm a minister without portfolio," he said. "I'm an unofficial ambassador. I'm the sheriff's eyes and ears and brain here, and if you ask me, I'm a great improvement on the original. Finn has made a strategic retreat, but he's keeping his rear well covered. If anything happens while he's away, I'm to let him know, so he won't be caught napping."

"He didn't have much trouble persuading you to accept the job, did he?" I asked.

Mark laughed. "No," he said. "I'm not bashful, you know." His laughter increased. "Finn was in a spot. He wanted to use me, but he was scared to death I'd go poking around digging up a lot of embarrassing information. He couldn't ask me not to in so many words, and Finn isn't a very good diplomat."

He sat up in bed and, with a worried frown, began tugging at an imaginary mustache. It was such a good burlesque of the sheriff's usual manner that I burst into laughter. When Mark spoke, his voice was ponderous and slightly embarrassed.

"Just keep your eyes open, Mr. Hilley," he quoted the sheriff. "Of course, I don't expect anything to happen. The case is practically washed up. But you never can tell when something's going to break. Just take it easy and let things ride, but let me know if anything happens."

He became himself again and, reaching over, pulled a photograph from under some magazines on his bedside table.

"Here's an enlargement of the photograph of the murderer he gave me for a souvenir. When I've solved the case, I'm going to ask him to autograph it—if he can write."

I looked at it, shaking my head. "You could magnify it a million diameters, and it still wouldn't show anything," Mark said. "He took it back. 'Poor Finn! It seems as though the murderer was in cahoots with everybody to bedevil him.'"

"Are you going to let things ride, as Finn asked you?"

"You should know me better than that. You know what a nasty prying keyhole pecking sort of mind I have. Let things ride, heck! I'm going right on with my quiet little investigation, and you're going to help me. I want you to take a little trip for me."

He picked up a blue-covered timetable from the stand beside him and opened it.

"I've been reading time-tables," he said, "not that I expect to use them myself soon, but just out of curiosity. Finn seems to have forgotten it, but you may remember that Vail was expecting a visitor the day he was killed. I thought the visitor was right here in the sanatorium, but there's a possibility that it was someone from New York."

"When Finn found out that none of the taxi drivers in Cold Valley had driven anyone here just after rest period, he decided that the visitor didn't come from outside. But remember, Vail wanted to see that person very privately. If I wanted to see someone without the whole sanatorium knowing it, I wouldn't let him get off the train at Cold Valley. I'd tell him to get off one station above or one below and get a taxi there. It wouldn't be a much longer ride, and it would be a lot more private."

"There's an idea!" I exclaimed. "Why didn't someone think of it sooner?"

"I should have," Mark admitted. "I hope the trail's not too cold now. But last week there were so many other things that for a while I forgot the mysterious visitor." He opened the time-table. "The afternoon train that arrives at Cold Valley at 3:02 gets to the station below, Echoville, at 2:49. It arrives at the station above Cold Valley at 3:18."

"That would be too late," I said. "If you wanted to get to the sanatorium just at 3:30 you'd have to get off either at Cold Valley or Echoville."

Mark nodded. "Smart boy. By a process of elimination, it appears that Echoville's the place. I want you to go there this afternoon, right after lunch. Don't drive down, take a taxi. See if you can find any taxi driver there who brought anyone to the san last Thursday afternoon."

Immediately after lunch I set out on my mission. My taxi I summoned from Cold Valley. As I drove down the long road through the woods that led to the entrance of the sanatorium, I wondered how I could make my inquiries without seeming too officious. I regretted that I had not discussed it with Mark, but after some hard thinking I found a way. I settled back in my seat, very much pleased with my ingenuity.

We rolled through the gates of the sanatorium and out on the smooth state highway. It was fairly cool riding, but the country showed the effects of the long heat wave. The grass was sere and the leaves of the trees were drooping and listless. We passed a few poor, scattered farms, a golf course, and several frame summer hotels on whose verandas women rocked and fanned themselves and gossiped. It took us about twenty minutes to reach Echoville, and there at the railroad station I dismissed the taxi.

(To Be Continued)

Copyright, 1934, by Joan Clayton and Malcolm Logan. Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Glaucoma One of Most Serious Eye Diseases

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health,
New York City

RECENTLY A YOUNG man talked to me about what he called "spots before his eyes." A member of his family had suffered from an eye disturbance called "glaucoma," which often causes blindness. He feared this was to be his fate. I was happy to assure the youth that he had no serious defect of the eye but merely needed glasses.

Glaucoma is one of the most serious diseases of the eye. Of the many disturbances that lead to adult blindness this is one of the most common. As a rule the disease afflicts persons of middle age. Very rarely is it encountered in infants and children.

The actual fundamental cause of glaucoma is not known. We know that it follows defective drainage of the fluids within the eyeball. This leads to hardness of the eyeball. If this tension continues the optic nerve fibers are destroyed. Unless corrected, permanent blindness results.

Neglect Is Dangerous

In the acute form of the disease the sufferer complains of intense pain, redness of the eyeball and rapid loss of vision. These symptoms are often confused with other and less important eye disorders. Neglect of them in glaucoma is dangerous. The sufferer should consult the doctor immediately and if operation is advised it should not be delayed. Successful results are obtained only in the early stages of the disease.

The chronic form of glaucoma is often overlooked. The symptoms of this form of the disease are not pronounced as they are in acute glaucoma. This explains the all too common negligence in the care of this serious disorder of the eye.

As a rule the chronic form progresses very slowly and without any severe pain or discomfort. There is a gradual loss of vision. This impairment of the sight is characterized by difficulty in detecting objects that are not in the direct line of vision. Those things that the normal person sees to the right and left are not caught by the diseased eye. The sufferer also notices at night colored halos around lights. He may have mild pain or feeling of eye fatigue, which he usually attributes to eye-strain and the need of glasses.

Early Treatment Essential

The pain and sensation of discomfort may entirely disappear, so that for a long period of time the patient is free of any symptoms. As time passes the distress returns and again the vision becomes abnormal. In most instances the vision is poor in the morning and improves during the day.

Glaucoma should not be confused with cataract. Careful examination of the eyes with a test of the tension, clearly distinguishes between the two afflictions. Glaucoma differs from cataract in that neglect of the latter is not as dangerous as neglect of glaucoma.

Let me repeat that an early diagnosis of glaucoma is essential to recovery. If all cases of glaucoma were recognized in the early stages of the disease there would be a marked decrease in the numbers of blind people. It is imperative that medical attention be given promptly if the vision is to be saved.

Answers to Health Queries

Mrs. B. S. Q.—What would you advise for head noises or clicking "tinnitus" of the ear?

A.—The condition is usually due to nasal catarrh. For full particulars restate your question and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

H. C. Q.—How can one overcome nervousness?

A.—Nervousness is usually due to a run down condition. Build up the general health. Take cod liver oil for a tonic. For full particulars restate your question and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright, 1934, K. F. S., Inc.)

Household Arts

Cross stitch—all in black or the color of the chair or done in varied colors! And what a charming set it will make! You can have a very effective pillow too, by using just the design of the chair back. The crosses are 6 to the inch so the work can be done quickly. This set is something that will meet with instant approval as a gift, so why not make it and store it away till you need it?

In pattern 5240 you will find a transfer pattern of a chair back 12½x15 inches and two arm rests 5½x12½ inches; instructions for making it or a pillow; material requirements; and illustrations of the stitches needed.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Herald Household Arts Dept., 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

Marian Martin Pattern

Complete, Diagrammed
Marian Martin Sew Chart
Included.
PATTERN 9153

No, it's not too early to start thinking about what to give to whom for Christmas—not if you're a wise girl and remember how rushed you always get in the end. We'd suggest that you first make yourself a pair of these smart short-sleeved pajamas. Then when you fall in love with the comfortable blouse with its trim notched collar and cunning pleated pockets—when you try wearing it tucked in at the waist or over the trousers—and finally when you see how "just right" the pajamas are for lounging and how comfortable for sleeping, you'll want to make up several pairs for your very special friends.

Pattern 9153 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires 3½ yards 36 inch fabric. Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern.

THE FALL AND WINTER ISSUE of the MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK is now off the press. It is big fashion news... and delightful reading... filled with stunning and easy-to-make patterns for street and house dresses, blouses, skirts, lingerie, sports clothes... all the essentials of a smart outfit for matron, maiden or little child. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Herald Pattern Department, 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

MOVIES

AT THE CLIFTONA

As the exceedingly beautiful, dangerous and fearless heroine of Paramount's "The Notorious Sophie Lang" coming Tuesday and Wednesday to the Cliftona Theatre, Gertrude Michael is cast in the title role as the exotic international crook who is fond of jewelry and men—especially jewelry.

The film is a fast-moving romance of a beautiful girl-crook, who outwits the police of several countries, steals the thunder from all her notorious rivals,—and the hearts from her many admirers,—and gets away with it.

AT THE GRAND

A brand new romantic team comes to the screen in the persons of Dick Powell and Ginger Rogers who appear as screen lovers in "Twenty Million Sweethearts" the First National picture at the Grand Theatre.

No more popular couple could appear together than these two, who are said to be not only admirably suited to each other temperamentally and physically, but to work in perfect harmony. Both have won their spurs as popular screen players as well as singers of exceptional ability.

Fowell rose to screen fame from an orchestra leader through such pictures as "42nd Street," "Footlight Parade," "Gold Diggers of 1933," "Wonder Bar" and others.

Tonight's "Airline" Features

7. Myrt and Marge, CBS.
- 7:30. Red Davis, NBC.
8. Richard Himber's orchestra and Joey Nash, NBC; Jan Garber's supper club, NBC-WLW.
- 8:30. Joseph Pasternack's orchestra, CBS.
9. Harry Horlick's Gypsies, NBC; Rosa Ponselle, CBS.
- 9:30. The Big Show, Block and Sully, Lud Gluskin's music and Gertrude Niesen, CBS.
- 10:30. Mobilization for Human Needs, President Roosevelt, NBC and CBS.

Children's Coughs Need Creomulsion

Always get the best, fastest and surest treatment for your child's cough or cold. Prudent mothers more and more are turning to Creomulsion for any cough—or cold—that starts.

Creomulsion emulsifies creosote with six other important medicinal elements—it is truly an elegant prescription. It is not a cheap remedy, but contains no narcotics and your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion. (adv.)

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

HORIZONTAL

- 1—range
- 6—appendage at mouth of various animals
- 10—recedes
- 14—fold of front of a coat
- 15—egg-shaped
- 16—to boudp
- 17—scene of public contest
- 18—enact law
- 20—and not
- 21—closest
- 23—the girl referred to
- 24—joyous
- 26—beauty created by man
- 27—put to the proof
- 29—to tip
- 31—oleoresin used in varnishes
- 33—an important source of oil
- 35—river in Germany
- 36—outgrowth of stem
- 40—fastened firmly
- 42—substance
- 44—a brewed liquor
- 45—a lichen
- 47—finished
- 48—to jet
- 50—visage

VERTICAL

- 73—assuaged
- 1—popular jargon
- 2—a song of joy
- 3—occupied in productive labor
- 4—writing instrument
- 5—enthusiasm
- 6—clayey
- 7—turned aside
- 8—fury
- 9—vesicles of the skin
- 10—wing of a house
- 11—brute
- 12—to lave
- 13—celerity
- 19—stalk
- 22—corrode
- 25—varied
- 28—muteness
- 30—to lease
- 32—dregs
- 33—a celestial sphere
- 34—to be situated
- 35—smell
- 37—attempts
- 38—single spot on cards
- 39—nourished
- 41—fellows as a pattern
- 43—ocean
- 46—unusual
- 49—animal allied to guinea pig
- 50—charge or professional service
- 51—fastened with cord
- 52—soon
- 53—ordinary language
- 56—pressed earnestly
- 57—room
- 58—spirited horse
- 61—wait for
- 62—meek
- 65—bottom of water course
- 67—light afternoon meal

Here with is the solution to Saturday's puzzle.

NEW LIANA WAD
OBLISHED ELI
WRETCH WABBLE
TORY EAR SHOP
OBI SUBEROUS
RE HIM NET TO ASTEROIDS SER
HEIR NOR DORA
OD NODE SENNIT CONSUL
AGO REEKS ATE
TOT TENSE PEG

Copyright, 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

PICKAWAY-TWP SCHOOL NOTES

Fourteen members of the senior class of Pickaway-town school were in Columbus, Friday, Oct. 19, to have their pictures taken. They also visited several places of interest—the blind institution, the feeble-minded institution, Dispatch building, Ohio State university—museum, State house and the A. I. U. tower.

YOUNG MOTHERS

Don't experiment with children's colds... Treat them as your own mother did—externally. No dosing! Just rub throat and chest with...

VICKS VAPORUB

PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

WOMEN WHO SUFFER

Plodding through days of periodical pain is dangerous and so unnecessary today as to be almost inexcusable.

Ask your doctor or druggist about VATONA—they recommend it, because it is the only one-purpose tonic corrective—because it is non-habit-forming and does not leave "brain-dullness."

Just give VATONA one trial.

VATONA
SEDATIVE ANTISPASMODIC
VATO
HYGIENIC AROMATIC POWDER
For Sale at All Drug Stores
Trial Size 50c.

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED... NOW

all He wanted to do was sell tomatoes
 but He helped make You HEALTHY
 the Year
 'Round

AD-SHOPPING MAKES YOUR BUYING DOLLAR GO MUCH FARTHER!

Ever play the game of ad-shopping? It's a great pastime and a grand time-and-money saver. Just make a list of what you want and need. Then check your list against the things you see advertised in the Daily Herald. Compare prices to your heart's content. Make note of anything you see advertised that you may have overlooked in planning your shopping list. Now you're ready to go—without wasting the day tramping endlessly from one store to another. You'll come home fresh as a daisy.

Oh, but wait! Just add up the prices of the advertised items you are going to buy. Good deal less than you thought it would be, isn't it? That's what puts the BIGGEST THRILL in ad-shopping! You usually have enough money left over to buy something extra-nice and personal for yourself!

KEEP POSTED ON WAYS to BETTER LIVING with
 the ADVERTISEMENTS in . . . .

NOT so many years ago the round, red fruit of a certain vine was called a "love-apple." A man in his right mind would no more eat it than he would go out and munch a toadstool. It was supposed to kill you at the very first bite! Then some hardy soul decided to "bite and see!" And so the delicious tomato was introduced to a hungry world.

But news of the tomato traveled very slowly. Your children might not be keeping healthy with it today if a grocer somewhere in an old-fashioned town hadn't been "stuck" with a bushel or two. Faced with a loss if they rotted, he threw discretion to the winds and ran an ad in the paper.

"TOMATOES FOR SALE. This fine new fruit said to be excellent for the health and complexion. I have a choice few. Fifteen cents apiece."

Mr. Grocer sold the lot, ordered more, sold those and presently was able to cut his price in half and then some while babies waxed fat on tomato juice.

CONVENIENCES GRANDMA NEVER DREAMED OF

As with tomatoes, so with vacuum cleaners safety razors, oil burners and the latest hat from Paris. The merchants who advertise them to you have no burning desire to make this world a healthier, smarter, more leisurely place to live in. They want to sell vacuum cleaners, safety razors, oil burners and lovely hats—and advertising is the best way to do it. But their advertising has told you about a lot of things you'd hate to be without today. Their advertising has introduced you to comforts and conveniences your grandmother never even dreamed of! And—because all wise buyers read advertising—Mr. Merchant sells more advertised goods and can keep on lowering the price to you.

Reads like a romance, doesn't it? But you can prove it for yourself. As you check through the ads in the Daily Herald today just count the number of things that make life pleasant which you might never have heard of if you hadn't seen them in the ads. And count the number of things you'd like to buy but couldn't afford (like tomatoes at fifteen cents apiece) if advertising hadn't made them so cheap and plentiful.

Perhaps you'll agree—we could get along without advertising—along with tomatoes and fountain pens and electric fans and swell silk stockings at 69c.

But, honest—wouldn't it be a tiresome old world?

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

Pickaway County's Daily NEWSpaper

Administration Reassures Business Life While Politicians Woo Voters

WASHINGTON — Is the Administration engaged in a deliberate campaign of wooing the good will of business as the first step in a rightward swing of economic policies?

Or is it anaesthetizing business in preparation for further radical surgical operations after elections?

That is the chief topic of conjecture in the Capital today.

It is a mixed picture.

In one corner, the political spokesmen are loudly and proudly acclaiming the liberal reforms of the New Deal. In the other corner the President and members of his official household, are just as industriously engaged in "reassuring" business.

That progress is being made in both arenas is unquestionable.

Despite latest Literary Digest polls, every indication points to a sweeping Roosevelt victory in the Congressional voting. The New Deal not only is likely to capture a two-thirds majority in the Senate, but hold its lines practically intact in the House.

The secret reassurances to business circles seem to be getting across. In the last few weeks commentators voicing business views have outdone themselves in announcing that reformist days of the Administration are over, and that henceforth recovery measures alone will be its aim.

From Wall Street also have poured forth a liberal flood of "inside" tips as follows:

That the President is against a Central Bank.

That after elections he will move to end strikes.

That the Administration is preparing to cut down Federal unemployment relief expenditures.

That the Brain Trusts and liberals are to be weeded out, or relegated to the background.

The facts, however, are almost the opposite. Roosevelt is not going to move drastically in either direction. In a recent conference with some so-called radical friends, he is reported to have said:

"Wait till elections are over. We're not going to budge an inch from our present policy."

♦ ♦ ♦

Satiated

A group of correspondents who had covered the NRA during the stirring days of its organization, called on General Hugh Johnson for a farewell chat.

The discussion turned on possible future policies of the Blue Eagle.

"General," one of the newsmen asked, "what would be the first thing you would do if you were appointed Administrator?"

"I'd resign."

♦ ♦ ♦

Forgotten Man

Senator Bronson Cutting of New Mexico is now chief Forgotten Man of the New Deal.

Two years ago, Cutting deserted the Republican Party for Roosevelt, jeopardized his carefully built up Republican machine, made a speech which was one of the highlights of the campaign.

Afterwards Roosevelt offered him the post of Interior Secretary, expressed warmest thanks and affection, looked upon Cutting not merely as a political ally but as an old family friend.

But now it is different.

Cutting is up for reelection. He is having a hard fight. Whereas Roosevelt has covertly aided Bob LaFollette — another Republican bolter — he has not lifted a finger for Cutting. In fact, Jim Farley has been working against him.

The exact reason remains a mystery.

♦ ♦ ♦

Defeated Hughes

Not often is the august atmosphere of the Supreme Court ruffled by the array of famous lawyers who come to plead before it. But in the case of John Francis Neylan, Lincolnian lawyer from San Francisco, it was.

The case opened most auspiciously. Charles Evans Hughes, bearded Chief Justice, looked more austere than usual. Probably he had forgotten that when he was running for President against

DAVEY TO SUE; HERBERT TOOL, NOMINEE SAYS

Declares Man is "Character Assassin" Picked by Strategy Board

DEFENDS ACTIONS

Demands Retraction of "His Falsehoods"

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—Branding the charges of Paul M. Herbert, Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, as "a most villainous and unforgivable declaration of deliberate falsehoods," Martin L. Davey, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, said today he would sue Herbert and the Republican campaign committee for libel immediately after the election unless they publicly retract the charges.

There are more than 100 prominent Republicans on the campaign committee. Davey said each would be named individually in his contemplated libel action.

REFUTES CHARGES

At the same time, Davey issued a statement designed to refute the charges Herbert made in Akron on Oct. 11, and repeated in part in Paulding-co last week about banking transactions of Davey and his companies.

Davey referred to Herbert as "a petty politician whose lack of moral sense perfectly fitted the role for which he was chosen, as the character assassin of this campaign," and charged that "his unscrupulous attack on me last week was made at the behest that Clarence J. Brown and the 'strategy board' of the Republican state campaign committee."

ADMITS DEBT

"The banking indebtedness, to which Herbert referred," Davey said in his formal statement, "I freely admit, and I offer no apologies for it. My ownership for many years of 45 shares of the stock of the City Bank of Kent is admitted. The ownership by the Davey Investment Company, beginning Aug. 1, 1931, of 435 shares of City Bank stock is also admitted. The other statements are malicious falsehoods, which furnish the worst example of dirty politics that I have encountered in twenty-two years.

"The statement that 'the City Bank of Kent was for many years also practically controlled by Martin L. Davey,' is a deliberate and unqualified lie.

OTTO PLEADS 'NOT GUILTY'

Gives $1,000 Bond as Franklin-Co Prosecutor Plans Early Hearing.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—Arraigned before Common Pleas Judge Henry L. Scarlett on a charge of embezzling $970.70 from the city of Columbus, City Auditor Walter E. Otto today pleaded not guilty and was held under bond of $1,000.

The arraignment of the city auditor took place during a recess in the trial of William Wright, charged with the murder of Addie Warrick.

Following Otto's arraignment, County Prosecutor Donald J. Hoskins indicated he would seek an early hearing of the city auditor's case in court. Otto has issue no statements in connection with his case other than to declare he will not resign his post.

Opposing attorneys indicated that when the case is brought to trial nearly every official at city hall probably will be called to testify.

PROGRESS IS SHOWN ON AIRPORT PROJECT

Splendid progress is being made on the new municipal airport, a state project, northwest of Circleville on land leased from S. J. Elsea between the Norfolk and Western and Chesapeake and Ohio railroads. Eighty acres comprise the lease.

Two runways are being perfected and one is almost complete. The greater part of the field has been tied for drainage with FERA workmen doing the job.

It is understood the Norfolk and Western railroad has agreed to run a ditch along its tracks to carry off some of the surface water on the east side of the field.

The project when completed is expected to cost about $25,000 with the exception of a hangar which would be placed on a slight incline at the west side of the field.

The local chapter of the National Aeronautic association is helping to supervise the project.

LEGION TO DEMAND PAYMENT OF BONUS

Police Court

Criminal courts were kept busy over the week-end with two men arrested for driving while intoxicated, a man and woman arrested for embezzlement, a man jailed for forgery, and a number of others arrested for intoxication.

Here is the "lineup": Clarence Seymour, Lancaster-pk, fined $100 and costs for driving while intoxicated. His truck struck a curbing on the Lancaster-pk throwing Nathan Snell, a bum, to the ground. Seymour was arrested by the state highway patrol and after spending the night in jail arranged to pay the fine. Snell was ordered from town.

Cloris Lytle, Columbus, fined $100 and costs on a similar charge. He was taken into custody Sunday on Route 23 north of Circleville by the highway patrol. His fine was paid Monday morning.

Ward Thompson, E. Mount-st., and Sarah Alice Rackin, Wayne-tw, were scheduled for hearings in Squire H. O. Eveland's court Monday afternoon on charges of embezzlement filed by Mrs. Grace Thompson, Watt-st. She claims Thompson and the Rackin woman took $22.50 from her a week ago. Constable Woeber was the arresting officer.

Joe Reichelderfer, 24, of South Bloomfield, will be given a hearing before Squire Eveland on charges of forgery. He was arrested Saturday by Deputy Bryan Custer after he had allegedly given a forged check for $8 to the bank store.

The check was made to John Reichelderfer and signed by Henry Reichelderfer, both names being forged according to officers. A pair of shoes bought with the check was recovered.

G. T. Padgett, of Pherson, is free on bond after a preliminary hearing to charges of disposing of a mortgaged automobile. The charge was filed in Eveland's court.

E. E. Moon, N. Huron-ave, Columbus, is to appear before Mayor Cady Monday evening to be tried for reckless operation of a motor vehicle on Route 23 north of this city. He was arrested on complaint of George Wright, who claimed he forced his automobile off the road.

John Irvin, a Columbus juvenile, was taken into custody by police Sunday while driving his father's automobile. The car carried fictitious license plates and is being held here until the plates are properly transferred.

Elmer Brown, of Kingston Route 1, was fined $5 and costs by Mayor Cady for disorderly conduct.

A number of others arrested and released after lectures were: Abner Leach, Charles Hott, Hubert Barnett, George Chilcote, Dewey Leach, and Ben Chilcote.

JOHN L. COX DIES IN DEERCREEK-TWP

John L. Cox, aged 71, former Deercreek-twp trustee, died suddenly Sunday after suffering for several years with asthma. He was born in Williamsport Sept. 8, 1863, a son of David and Henrietta Hunsicker Cox.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home with Rev. W. A. Moore officiating. Burial will be in Springlawn cemetery by C. E. Hill.

Mr. Cox is survived by his widow, Mrs. Oona Dorn Cox, whom he married 47 years ago, and the following sisters, Mrs. Harry West, W. Main-st.; Mrs. Nellie Zimmerman, Martin's Ferry; Nancy Cox and Stella Lemle, Columbus.

Sensenbrenner's Car Strikes Tree, Damaged

Marion Sensenbrenner's Ford sedan was damaged Sunday afternoon when it backed down a steep incline against a tree in the vicinity of Old Man's cave.

Mr. Sensenbrenner's family was out of the car seeing the sights when he tried to turn it around. The starter stuck and Sensenbrenner got out to shake the car to try to loosen the starter. He left the switch on and the car backed down the bank until it reached a tree, where it stopped.

The rear end of the car was damaged considerably.

Wave of Sympathy Grows for Bruno

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Oct. 22.—An entirely unlooked-for development in the re-opened Lindbergh kidnapping case occupied the attention of New Jersey authorities today.

Attorney General David T. Wilentz admitted he was frankly alarmed at evidences of a shift of public sympathy to the side of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, Bronx carpenter, who is held in the Hunterdon-co jail here awaiting trial on a charge of slaying the Lindbergh baby.

Delegates Roused By President's Statement Veterans Better Off Than Many Other Classes; Poll Shows Trend; Four Day Session Starts.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 22.—Seventy thousand gaily garbed veterans of the World War gathered here today at the sixteenth annual American Legion convention, determined to demand immediate cash payment of the adjusted service (bonus) certificates.

The bonus issue was projected into the convention by President Roosevelt's recent speech at Norfolk. The president, rather than forestalling a bonus fight, appeared to have aroused the veterans to a fighting pitch by his statement that the ex-soldiers were "better off" as a class than many other citizens.

REBUKE ACTION

A careful survey indicated the convention would endorse a resolution, calling for cash payment of the bonus, by a tremendous majority. A score of administration leaders, fighting the proposed resolution as a rebuke to Mr. Roosevelt, were in a helpless minority.

Frank N. Belgrano, Jr., of California, was headed for the national commandship. His choice became a foregone conclusion when Ray Murphy of Iowa, his principal rival, retired in his favor.

Beside the bonus issue, the convention program appeared to be cut and dried. Other resolutions will be approved, calling for deportation of undesirable aliens, registration of all aliens, preferred treatment of veterans on public work and relief projects and a universal draft act for time of war. There will be little or no contest on any of these subjects.

SELECT ST. LOUIS

A four-day program confronted the veterans. A series of speeches opened exercises this morning in Bay Front park. The annual parade will be held Tuesday. On Wednesday, the convention will pass on resolutions, including the cash bonus issue, and select St. Louis as its 1935 convention city. The new national commander will be chosen Thursday.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold its fourteenth convention simultaneously. It too will elect new national officers Thursday.

The bonus fight, however, overshadowed all other issues. A week ago, national legion leaders discounted talk of a bonus contest. They recalled the legion had been silent at Chicago last year.

Wives of Democratic Candidates Come Here For Saturday Meeting

Mrs. Howard L. Bevis, of Cincinnati, whose husband is a candidate to succeed himself for judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon on Saturday, Oct. 27, at the New American Hotel Coffee shop.

Charles West, one of Ohio's most ardent "New Dealers" and orator of note, will be the principal speaker.

Mrs. Joseph Cromley, chairman of the Federated Democratic Women's club of Pickaway-co, which is sponsoring the luncheon, announced Monday that she has received word from state headquarters that in addition to the guest speaker, Mrs. Martin L. Davey and her daughter, will be additional guests.

Mrs. Glenn L. Nickerson, chairman of the committee in charge of the luncheon, reports that reservations are being made quite satisfactorily and urges all those who wish to attend to get their tickets as soon as possible as no more will be available.

Mrs. Cromley points out that the meeting is for men as well as women.

FLOYD EVADES OHIO CAPTORS; MAY BE SLAIN

Posses Search Woods in Wellsville Vicinity for Dangerous Outlaw

CONFEDERATE HELD

"Pretty Boy" Identified by Chief of Police

WELLSVILLE, Oct. 22.—Charles H. (Pretty Boy) Floyd, Oklahoma killer and notorious desperado, continued to evade the clutches of the law today although federal, state and county officers, armed and ready to "shoot it out," stalked the woods in this district on his trail.

Search for the outlaw, who was believed to be badly wounded, was superintended by Melvin Purvis, keen-eyed head of the mid-west division of the department of justice, in cooperation with Police Chief James H. Fultz whose statement that he was "positive" of Floyd's identification led to the manhunt.

HELD FOR MASSACRE

Meanwhile, Adam Richetti, the Oklahoma killer's henchman, was lodged in jail here by federal authorities as a suspect long sought in connection with the Kansas city union station massacre.

International News Service learned definitely today that Floyd was in this section Saturday afternoon. Shown a photograph of the fugitive, Theodore Petterson of Wellsville, exclaimed:

"That's the man that offered me $10 to drive him to Youngstown, O., Saturday afternoon."

That Floyd is desperately wounded was confirmed by two men with whom he came in contact after his battle with Fultz. They are George McMillan and James H. Baum. After Richetti had been captured, Floyd fled over a hill to a highway where he encountered McMillan driving a small car.

Baum, also driving a small car, was then stopped by Floyd and compelled to drive toward Lisbon. As they neared Lisbon police officers appeared in the road and Floyd made Baum turn around and drive back toward Wellsville.

About nine miles from Wellsville Floyd jumped out of the car and fled into the woods.

SHOT THROUGH BODY

"Floyd was wounded, I know that," Baum, who is a florist, told the police. "He was suffering constantly."

Continued On Page Two

Court News

$1,766.66 COGNOVIT

W. J. Weaver and Son, a partnership, had filed a cognovit action in common pleas court today against Albert Dodd for $1,766.66 with six per cent interest from March 1, 1932. E. E. Weaver represents the plaintiff.

REINHART ESTATE

Mrs. Susia Young, Walnut-tw, has been appointed administratrix of the estate of the late Lavina Reinhart. The property is valued at $400. Mrs. Reinhart is survived by seven children.

APPOINTED GUARDIAN

Fred Howell, this city, has been appointed guardian in probate court of Donna Jean Howell.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Frank J. Hartman, 33, 1055 Highland-st., Columbus, shoe factory employe, and Esther May Mowery, 21, Circleville, Rev. Troutman.

Clyde R. Peters, 22, 315 W. Ohio-st., laborer, and Francis Sudie Martin, 19, Circleville, Rev. Roy Ferguson.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Reason Huffer, Route 2, was taken to Berger hospital Sunday for treatment. He is suffering from pneumonia. The trip was made in the Albaugh invalid car.

Miss Margaret Tatman, Route 2, was discharged from the hospital Sunday.

TURNER IN DESPERATE EFFORT TO OVERTAKE BRITONS LEADING DERBY

American Girl Quits Race; Mollisons, too, Forced Out

Jacqueline Cochran, American aviatix, the only girl pilot from the United States entered in the London-to-Melbourne derby, was forced to quit the race, Sunday, by engine trouble. She is shown above with her co-pilot, Wesley Smith. The Flying Mollisons, British couple, were forced out near Allahabad, India, by engine trouble.

Blair, Keeler to Arrange County Corn Husking Bee

Agents of Pickaway and Ross Counties To Meet With Clarksburg Committee This Evening; Contest To Be Held Near Clarksburg Friday or Saturday.

F. K. Blair, Pickaway-co farm agent, and Fred Keeler, Ross-co agent, are scheduled to meet with a committee of Clarksburg citizens this evening to arrange for a Pickaway-Ross corn husking contest either Friday or Saturday of this week.

The contest will be staged in the Clarksburg vicinity if all arrangements can be made. The definite date and location will be announced after tonight's meeting.

By staging a Pickaway-Ross contest the duties of Mr. Blair, who is busy arranging for the state meet to be held Nov. 2, will be relieved somewhat. A single committee will be able to handle the contest if staged as a bi-county affair.

Since Clarksburg's vicinity boasts a number of expert huskers it is believed proper that the bi-county meeting should be held near that town. The husking bee will be a community affair with Clarksburg, Williamsport, New Holland and Atlanta taking part.

Other contests are being held all over the state with competitors being selected to take part in the state corn day program on the Carpenter farm near Darbyville.

WORK ON W. MAIN BUILDINGS STARTS

Workmen began Monday to raze a number of buildings starting at the northwest corner of Scioto and Main-sts. in preparation for construction of a modern service station to be occupied by the Given Oil Co.

All the buildings from the corner to the Justus hotel will be torn down.

Work is being pushed in an effort to complete a new two-story addition to the Laurville school building before cold weather halts the work. The addition is estimated to cost $8,900.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hamilton, Half-ave, announce the birth of a son, Sunday.

NOW IS THIRD

Scott and Black, Apparently in Safe Lead, Off on Last Journey

13 REMAIN IN FIELD

Americans Try Desperate Non-Stop to Darwin

BULLETIN

FOGGIA, Italy, Oct. 22.—

In the first disaster of the London to Melbourne air derby, Flying Officer H. D. Gilman and J. K. C. Baines, the owner of his plane, were burned to death when their swift machine crashed in flames near here today.

Although out of the race because of a series of setbacks, Gilman was continuing on toward Australia by easy stages, and was heading out over the Adriatic toward Athens when the tragedy occurred.

SINGAPORE, Oct. 22.—Still hoping to catch the two planes leading them in the London to Melbourne air race, Col. Roscoe Turner and Clyde Pangborn of the United States roared into Singapore at 9:05 a. m. E. S. T. today, and left at 10:27 a. m. for Darwin, Australia.

Turner and Pangborn refused to say whether they thought they had any chance of victory, but the fact they stopped here little more than an hour made it evident their hopes were still high.

Turner looked fairly fit, but was fatigued and dejected from the many hours spent behind his roaring motor.

A huge crowd greeted the Americans. Hundreds of persons surged forward to get a glimpse of the fliers, who were officially welcomed by the American consul-general.

Their first thought was of food. They were given a meal of ham and eggs and mashed potatoes.

PLAN NO STOPS

"We don't know when we'll get our next meal," Turner said.

The fliers hope to reach Darwin without a stop.

DARWIN, Australia, Oct. 22.—

With only 2,175 miles separating them from a $50,000 prize, C. W. A. Scott and Campbell Black, veteran British airmen, got away from Darwin at 8:30 a. m. E. S. T. today, leaders in the thrilling air race from London to Melbourne.

Scott and Black limped into Darwin at 6:08 a. m. on one engine. The other failed them halfway across the Timor Sea, but they put mechanics to work immediately, and in less than 24 hours, declared themselves ready to continue the flight.

A single stop is planned at Charlotte, two-thirds of the way to Melbourne.

If no setbacks occur, the British will reach London by Oct. 27.

(Continued on Page Two)

DEATH SUMMONS CHESTER LEVAN

Chester Levan, 43, died at his home on Town-st. Sunday, at 12 o'clock noon.

He was an employee of the Container corporation.

He is survived by his widow, Hazel Francis Levan; three sons, Brooks, of Columbus, and Dale and Edgar of Detroit, Mich.; one brother, Charles of Amanda, and two sisters, Mrs. Amanda Hancock of Columbus and Mrs. John Miller of Stoutsville.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Church of the Brethren with Rev. Charles Essick officiating. Burial will be in Maple Hill cemetery, Stoutsville, by Crites and Van-Clove.

DUNLAP REGISTERED IN COLUMBUS. MELL UNDERWOOD CLAIMS

A challenge to Renick W. Dunlap, Kingston, G. O. P. candidate for congress, to prove his residence was hurled by Congressman Mell G. Underwood Saturday night, at Pickerington.

Underwood charges that Dunlap has not voted at a general election in this congressional district further stating that he gave his residence in the 1932 election as 1306 N. W. ave., Columbus. The 1932 books also show Underwood claimed that he was a registered voter in Ward 15, Precinct 3, Columbus.

GIRL, 19, INJURED

Miss Mary Gossett, 19, a resident of the state hospital, Columbus, was injured at Berger hospital Sunday for a lacerated lip and cuts on the left side of her face when she suffered when she was thrown through the windshield of an automobile driven by Charles Clark, also of the state hospital.

Clark, who was driving the car who was slightly injured, was Clark, Gerald Brady and Florence Taylor.

The three are going north on Court-st. at 12 a. m. Sunday, in the automobile of Earl McAnce parked in front of the Hotel Boggs.

raises of Dye Sung at State

COLUMBUS, Oct. 22.—Praises for "Tip" Dye, the Buckeye quarterback of midget dimensions, were being sung to the skies today on the Ohio State university campus as Coach Francis Schmidt prepared to send his gridiron team through their first training games for the Northwestern game at Evanston this next week-end.

Dye, who hails from Pomeroy, was one of the mainstays of the Buckeyes' 10-7 victory last Saturday over Andy Kerr's Colgate eleven. His superb generalship and dead-eye passing were in a great part the downfall of the Colgate Red Raiders.

PRaised BY SCHMIDT
It was Dye's performance when his team was training 7 to 3 that placed the Buckeyes in position to

CHICAGO BEARS CONTINUE PACE

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Pittsburgh Pirates apparently are not as weak a football team as their lowly position in the national pro league standings would indicate. The Smokey city players gave the New York Giants quite a battle at the Polo grounds yesterday until Steve Owen's men began to get annoyed and really put on the old pressure.

The final score was 17 to 7. A 44-yard field goal by Ken Strong gave the Giants three points in the opening period and they put over touchdowns in the third and final periods. The Pirates got their touchdown in the last quarter.

In Boston a third period touchdown by Cliff Battles enabled the Boston Redskins to defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 6-0.

The mighty Chicago Bears, champions, won their sixth in a row at Wrigley field Chicago. They have yet to meet defeat. They trounced the hapless Cincinnati Reds, 41 to 7.

The Bears' civic brothers, the Chicago Cardinals, were not so fortunate, however. They dropped a 13 to 0 decision to the Green Bay Packers in one of the most bitterly contested games seen at Green Bay, Wis., in years.

Inclement weather caused a postponement of the game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Detroit Lions at Detroit.

New Idea: Swimming to School

Going to school in bathing suits is the latest fad in southern California. The idea was born of necessity after a heavy torrential rainstorm struck the area, flooding cities and towns. Attired in bathing suits, Kenneth Bennett and his sister, Kitty May, are pictured wading to school at Long Beach, while holding their books on their heads.

Kidnaper's Wife at Hearing

Three poses of Mrs. Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., wife of the man hunted as the kidnaper of Mrs. Alice Stoll, as she appeared when taken before United States Commissioner Eugene M. Dailly at Louisville, Ky., on a charge of conspiracy to violate the "Lindbergh law." Her bond is $50,000.

Bishop Captain

RAY HARLEY—END

When Ohio Wesleyan meets Wittenberg in its homecoming game next Saturday, Oct. 27, at Delaware, Ray Harley, veteran end from Ashtabula, will be the captain of the Battling Bishops. Harley is a senior and is playing the greatest game of his career. He is strong not only in catching passes but also in defensive play. He has won two "W" letters.

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

BIG OVER SMALL

If Colgate were playing Ohio State again next week-end we'd be among the spectators in the stands—Saturday's game was a peach to watch—Both teams played hard, clean ball and used a number of thrilling offensive plays that kept the stands on edge all through the fray—it was a case of a good big team defeating a mighty good small team.

11 OUT OF 16

It's still fun to guess the outcome of the major football games of the country—This column was correct 11 times out of 16 guesses, missing on the Columbia-Navy, Iowa-Iowa State, Ohio-U-Miami, and Pitt-Minnesota encounters. We guessed right on Alabama over Tennessee, Yale over Brown, Notre Dame over Carnegie, Chicago over Indiana, Ohio over Colgate, Cincinnati over Ashland, Denison over Wittenberg, St. Mary's over Fordham, Michigan over Georgia Tech, Michigan State over Manhattan, Syracuse over Wesleyan, and Purdue over Wisconsin.

ONWARD MINNESOTA

The big game of the day, of course, was that between Pitt and Minnesota in the smoky city—The Gophers, coached by Bernie Bierman and headed by Pug Lund and Frank Larson, played great ball to stop the Panthers with a single touchdown then turned on the heat for two on their own account in the final period.

HIGH PLAYS THURSDAY

The high school plays of Central Buckeye league contest this week on Thursday—Westerville is the opposition—A teachers' meeting in Columbus causes the transfer. Bexley now stands on top of the league standing with two victories and a tie while Grandview and Marysville are tied for second each with two victories and one defeat—Westerville is third with one victory, one defeat, one tie, Delaware has won one and lost two and the Tigers haven't won any three starts—Only seven points have been tallied against Bexley while that team has scored only 26 times in three frays. The Tigers have the poorest offense and defense in the league failing to score and having been scored upon 66 times for an average of 22 per game.

POLL OF STATE ATTORNEYS FAVORS DEMOCRATIC JUDGES

Judges Charles B. Zimmerman and Howard L. Bevis who are candidates to succeed themselves on the Supreme Court at the coming election have been overwhelmingly endorsed by various lawyer's groups over the State. Judge N. Craig McBride of the Common Pleas court of Highland-co, who

COMBINED CHOIRS TO APPEAR HERE

WASHINGTON, C. H., Oct. 22.—The combined choirs of the First Baptist Church, Church of Christ, Grace M. E. church and First Presbyterian church, which will present the third annual concert in this city the night of Nov. 4 under auspices of the Cecilia Music Club, have accepted an invitation extended from Circleville to appear in that city and repeat the concert given here, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 11, at four o'clock.

The choir was invited to give the concert at the M. E. church to climax a week of celebration being staged by that church and a large representation from all other churches is expected to enjoy the concert.

At a rehearsal this week the choir voted to accept the invitation. Rehearsals are to be held at Grace M. E. church Tuesday and Thursday night of the coming week, and it is highly important that all taking part in the choir be present for the remainder of the rehearsals as audiences both in this city and Circleville that will pack the churches, are expected.

BUSEY WARNS OF END OF MARKETING YEAR UNDER A. A. A.

The first marketing year in the slaughtering of hogs, and the sale or exchange of hog products derived therefrom, under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, will end Nov. 4, 1934, Harry F. Busey, Collector of Internal Revenue, Columbus, announced today.

Processing taxes are levied primarily to provide funds so that payments can be made where contracts are entered into for reduction of production.

The tax is paid by the person, whether an individual, association, partnership or corporation, doing the first domestic processing. Return of tax due is made on Processing Tax Form 4 where the processor is one who purchases live hogs in connection with a regular slaughtering business, while in the case of a farmer (producer-processor) who raises hogs and in turn slaughters them for market, the return is made on Processing Tax Form 4X.

For the marketing year 1934 (Nov. 5, 1933, to Nov. 5, 1934), a producer-processor is allowed an exemption of 300 pounds of dressed weight if not over 1,000 pounds of pork products are sold during the marketing year so stated. 300 pounds of pork products are equivalent to 396 pounds of live weight of hogs. If more than 1,000 pounds are sold in the marketing year, the producer or raiser loses the 300 pound exemption.

If a farmer or other person should have filed a return but neglected to do so, delinquent returns should be filed at once with Deputy Collectors H. L. Benton or Paul L. Tressler, Columbus, Ohio.

Democratic Committee Called for November 2

Plans for the last week of the campaign will be made Friday, Nov. 2, at a meeting of the Pickaway-co Democratic executive committee, according to an announcement today by George G. Adkins, chairman.

10 DEAD IN OHIO

By International News Service.—Heavy traffic over Ohio's streets and roads, wet pavements, and crashes of automobiles with a train and a street car today had taken a toll of the lives of 10 persons and injured nearly 50 others. Freak accidents and two hit-skip drivers also raised the toll.

CORN IS STOLEN

Ten bushels of corn were stolen during the week-end from Ned Bell, Jackson-twp.

Heads U. S. Surgeons

Dr. Donald C. Balfour

Here is Dr. Donald C. Balfour of Rochester, Minn., chief surgeon of the Mayo clinic, who was elected president of the American College of Surgeons at the annual surgeons' congress in Boston.

Hauptmann Taken to New Jersey

Losing his fight to avoid extradition to New Jersey where he faces charges of murder in connection with the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, center, manacled to two New Jersey detectives, is snapped leaving the Bronx, N. Y., jail for Flemington, N. J. Hauptmann lost the extradition fight when the appellate court upheld the recent ruling of the supreme court dismissing his habeas corpus action.

FLOYD EVADES

Continued From Page One

siderably, but was so excited he paid little attention to the pain. It looked as though he had been shot clear through the body either from his stomach or from the back."

Further evidence that Floyd was wounded—a pool of blood—was found in the rear of Baum's car. The woods into which the gunman fled is five miles long and two miles wide and there are innumerable brush piles where a man might hide.

A posse of more than 150 men was combing the section this morning, but no trace could be found of Floyd. This led to the suspicion that the desperado had crawled under a brush pile and died. If this the case it might be days before his body is discovered.

Richetti made what the authorities described as a "frank confession." He said he and Floyd kidnaped Sheriff Killingsworth of Bolivar, Mo., a year ago, and detailed the drive from Bolivar to Lesum-

MUHLBERG-TWP SCHOOL NOTES

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL

On Thursday evening, Oct. 25, The Muhlenberg-twp. P. T. A. is sponsoring a Halloween Carnival at the school building. The ladies of the Association will serve lunch during the evening. Menu will consist of the following: Sandwiches, pickles, pumpkin pie, coffee, doughnuts, and cider. Prizes for the funniest, the prettiest, and the most characteristic will be given. Among other concessions and entertainments will be a fish pond and a mystery house. Plan to come and enjoy the evening. Every one welcome.

TEACHERS' MEETING

School will be dismissed on Oct. 26 to permit the teachers to attend their district meeting at Columbus. All of our teachers have paid dues to the Association and are planning to attend.

All of the Muhlenberg-twp teachers were in attendance at the county-wide teachers' meeting held at Circleville on Saturday, Oct. 13. This is the first of several meetings scheduled for this school year.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

On Thursday evening, Oct. 18, the Ladies Aid Society of the Darbyville M. E. church held its annual Birthday Dinner in the school auditorium.

Last Friday our boys' baseball team played a good game of ball to defeat the fast stepping team from Derby by a score of 4-3. This coming Friday we are going to Derby for a return game. This game will be the final one of the baseball season.

BASKETBALL

Basketball plans are being started for the school year. Six games have been scheduled. They are Dec. 21, Salterbrook, Jan. 11, Walnut, Jan. 18, New Holland, Jan. 25, Pickaway, Feb. 1, Williamsport, Feb. 8, Monroe. These games were arranged by drawings held at a meeting of the local superintendents and coaches after the teachers' meeting in Circleville last Saturday. Other games will be scheduled at a later date.

SIX-WEEKS GRADES

Grade cards were distributed on Wednesday. Most of the pupils have completed all the required work for the six weeks' period. However, a few of the cards are being marked "Incomplete." This work is to be made up at a future date. Most of the grades have been very satisfactory. They do show, however, that attendance plays its part in building up the grades. Those who have been absent several days in the first six weeks period find their grades low. Only through extra work can this be made up. The school is insisting that the absence be cut as low as possible.

Mrs. I. D. Smith and children, Mary Jane and David, of Petersburg, W. Va., returned Monday to their home after spending the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Groce, E. Union-st, Mr. Smith and sister, Mrs. Hopkins Van Meter, were here for a week-end visit and motored Mrs. Smith and children home Monday.

12 KILLED IN PACIFIC GALE

80-Mile Wind Subdues As Portland-Seattle Districts Are Stricken.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22.—The lashing fury of near torrential rains and an 80-mile gale which whipped the Washington and Oregon coast for 24 hours claiming twelve lives subsided today.

The freighter Floridian, which flashed a distress signal, that she was being buffeted onto treacherous rocks five miles north of the mouth of the Columbia river, advised late last night she had anchored off the lightship during the height of the storm and was proceeding under her own power to Portland.

While racing to the aid of the Floridian, the coast guard cutter Haida rescued two members of a fishing boat crew off Point Wilson, Wash. Five others in the crew perished in the mountainous seas. In Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christenson were electrocuted when the gale blew a high tension wire across their radio antenna which they were repairing.

Lou Kin, 37, a Chinese, was killed in Seattle when the three upper stories of a five-story rooming house were crashed in by the howling gale.

In Astoria, Carl Packow, 25, a duck hunter, was drowned when his rowboat capsized in the Lewis & Clark river.

AIR DERBY

(Continued From Page One)

ish airmen will be easy winners. At the time of the departure, the nearest rivals, K. D. Parmenter and J. J. Moll of Holland, flying a huge American Douglas transport plane, had not even reached Darwin.

Col. Roscoe Turner and Clyde Pangborn, the leading American entries, had arrived at Singapore.

SET NEW RECORD

Clipping more than four days from the previous record for the same journey, Scott and Black swept into Darwin at 6:08 a. m. (EST) today.

One of the motors of their huge De Havilland comet failed over the Timor Sea, and they had to fly blind through heavy rain clouds. The ten other planes still in the race, making a total of thirteen survivors out of the original twenty which started from Melbourne airport near London at 1:30 a. m. E. S. T. Saturday, were scattered from Athens eastward.

Chances were more or less evenly divided for the handicap race, but the speed contestants were apparently reduced to three. Besides Turner and Pangborn, but one American team was left in the marathon. John Wright and John Polado, the Massachusetts airmen, were speeding toward Cyprus, a score of bad breaks which beset them when they were far out in front.

MOLLISONS OUT

Among those who failed were James and Amy McIlhen, premier British fliers, who retired at Allahabad owing to a series of bad breaks which beset them when they were far out in front.

ABDUCTOR'S WIFE TO STAY IN JAIL

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Frances Robt son, wife of the kidnaper of Mrs. Alice Stoll, is "safe in jail" and an attempt will be made to obtain her release on bond, Clem Huggins, her attorney, announced here today.

"Her life is in danger as long as her husband is at large," declared the counsel for the woman who is charged with aiding her husband and her father-in-law in the abduction plot.

Bond of $50,000 was ordered fixed for Mrs. Robinson and Thomas H. Robinson, Sr., of Nashville, by United States District Judge Charles I. Dawson. The younger Robinson will be held without bond when he is captured. Mrs. Robinson will be arraigned here Tuesday.

GLASS ON FIRE

Grass caught fire in the backyard of the residence of the Wendell Boyer Monday afternoon. No damage was done.

MURDERER FLEES

WARREN, Oct. 22.—A $1,000 reward for the capture, "dead or alive," of Elmer E. Martin, who "cracked" the Trumbull-co jail here, was posted today by county commissioners.

Meanwhile, the search for the 38-year-old Warren road house proprietor spread to five states, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana. Authorities revealed that the fugitive, whose first degree murder trial was to have started today, was wanted in Pennsylvania for a jail break at Bellefonte. Chicago police also want him, police said.

Brandishing a pistol with which he threatened Turnkey James Jones and two deputies when Jones opened his cell door to permit Frank Boyle, attorney, to enter, Martin forced his way to the jail office. There he locked the deputies in the bull pen and made good his escape.

Four Big Field Trials COON, RABBIT, FOX and BIRD DOGS SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28 Starting at 7 A. M. Auspices Fairfield County Fish and Game Ass'n. LANCASTERS. Everybody Welcome.

SOCIETY

Miss Helen Crist, Editor, Phone 531

KATHRYN WALTERS MARRIED SUNDAY

Miss Kathryn Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Walters, of Whistler, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Victor L. Burkholder, of Beaumont, Texas, at 12:30 p. m. Sunday at Trinity Lutheran church with Rev. George L. Troutman reading the service in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Miller.

The bride was attired in a car-cara suit trimmed in beaver fur with which she wore brown accessories.

Mrs. Burkholder is a graduate of Salt Creek high school and attended Capital university, Columbus, where she was a member of Kappa Sigma Theta.

Mr. Burkholder also attended Capital university. He received his professional education in the Western Reserve university, where he was graduated in October 1932. While attending there he became a member of the honorary fraternity Kappa Kappa Psi.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Beaumont, Texas, where Mr. Burkholder is employed with Pipkin and Brulin Co. funeral parlors.

They will reside at 902 Broadway, Beaumont, Texas.

ORR'S CELEBRATE 45TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A happy event was the celebration of the forty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Orr, of Kingston, Sunday.

The seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Orr and their families arrived at the Orr home at the noon hour for a family three course dinner. Centering the main table around which was seated the immediate family, was a huge silver bowl of yellow chrysanthemums. Yellow candles in silver holders lighted the table.

Following the dinner an interesting account of the Orr-Lutz wedding, which took place at the ancestral home of the bride's father, Col. Isaac Lutz was read. This ceremony was performed before 125 guests by the Rev. Samuel Crosby; the newspaper clipping was written by Lillian Darst for a Circleville paper.

Photographs were taken of the family during the course of the afternoon and congratulations were received on this eventful day by the honored couple and their children. Judge and Mrs. Stanley Orr of Cleveland; Dr. and Mrs. Earl P. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson B. Bitzer of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Johnson this city; Mr. and Mrs. Daird N. Bennett, and Miss Virginia Lee Orr of Kingston.

Fifteen grandchildren were also invited to share in the celebration with their parents and Mr. and Mrs. Orr who are active and in excellent health.

TWO ARE HOSTESSES AT BRIDGE SATURDAY

Miss Helen Crist, N. Scioto-st., and Miss Mary Crist, N. Court-st., entertained a group of nurses at an evening bridge party at the latter's home, Saturday.

Five tables of cards were assembled and when tallies were added favors went to Miss Angela Andros of Columbus, Mrs. Malcolm Parrett and Miss Katherine Brennan. A salad course served after the game brought the evening to a close.

Guests were Mrs. Ray Eyerman, Mrs. Paul Brown, Misses Angela Andros, Ruth Lee, Elsie and Alice Stemen, Helen and Evelyn Brigel of Columbus; Miss Mildred Haid and Miss Ethel Myers of Delaware; Miss Esther Riegel of Ashville; Miss Lois Neff and Miss Pauline Thomas of Stoutsville; Miss Irene Baird of Williamsport; Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Katherine Brennan, Mrs. Aaron Lumpe, Mrs. Malcolm Parrett, Miss Ethel Kirchofer and Mrs. Forrest Short. Misses Elsie and Alice Stemen remained for a week-end visit with Miss Crist.

25 MEMBERS OF SEWING CIRCLE GO TO COLUMBUS

Twenty-five members of the Merri-makers sewing circle of the Eastern Star motored to Columbus, Saturday afternoon, to meet with Mrs. Noah Weaver at her home on Fairfax-rd.

Enjoying the delightful social afternoon were Mrs. George Foerst, Mrs. George Hammel, Mrs. Lester Coate, Mrs. Robert Denman, Mrs. Noah Spangler, Mrs. W. S. Gerhart, Mrs. Hervey Sweeney, Mrs. E. S. Neuding, Mrs. Germain Joseph, Mrs. Earl Hilyard, Mrs. G. H. Adkins, Mrs. G. L. Schiear, Mrs. Leslie May, Mrs. Charles Dresbach, Mrs. Frank Marion, Mrs. E. I. Gephart, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Mrs. E. S. Shane, Miss Virginia Marion, Miss Essie Reber, Mrs. O. J. Towers, Mrs. Carl Bennett, Mrs. Earl Price, Mrs. Robert Lilly, and Mrs. Ella Hornbeck.

Mrs. A. L. Brown, of Columbus, was a guest of the circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester George, Mrs. J. S. Morris and Miss Iona Miller returned Monday from a visit in Winston Salem, N. C., where they were guests of Mr. George's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Martin George and Mrs. Morris' daughter, Mrs. Forest Tomerson and Mr. Tomerson.

Personal Loans $25 To $1000

I give just as much time and attention to the small borrower who only needs $25.00 as I do to the person who applies for $500.00 or $1000.00. Every loan applicant is assured a courteous, attentive interview.

The City Loan
132 WEST MAIN ST.
CIRCLEVILLE

In Romance or Just Friends?

William Powell and Jean Harlow, prominent stars of the screen, have been engulfed in a pool of reports and rumors since they began to attend functions, social and otherwise, together in Hollywood. Some of the reports hint at a romance, but Powell and Jean insist they are just friends. They are shown attending a recent wrestling match in the cinema capital.

ANN STORY, BRIDESMAID AT FRIENDS WEDDING

Miss Ann Story, of Washington C. H., granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Howard, E. Main-st., was bridesmaid at the church wedding of Miss Kathryn R. Persinger, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carey Persinger, of Washington C. H., and Mr. M. Grove Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Davis, also of Washington C. H.

The wedding took place Thursday at 3 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church in Washington with Rev. J. Stanley Mitchell reading the service.

The bride and her bridesmaid have friends in this city having visited here a number of times.

Joseph Campbell was best man and ushers were Richard R. Willis, Willard H. Perrill, Hiram J. Hitchcock and David S. Craig Jr., of Columbus.

A reception followed the wedding and the couple left on a motor trip through Virginia to Washington D. C.

Upon their return they will reside at the beautiful country home of the bridegroom near Washington on the Baron-Steuben highway.

BOOKWALTER-KREIDER NUPTIALS AT KINGSTON

Miss Dorothy Bookwalter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Bookwalter, of Kingston, became the bride of Claude Kreider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Kreider, near Tarilton, Thursday, Oct. 8, at a beautiful home wedding.

The ceremony was read at 4 o'clock before an improvised altar by Rev. Paul M. Niswander.

Miss Elizabeth Umsted played a program of nuptial music preceding the service.

A reception followed the nuptials after which the couple left on a trip.

PICKAWAY-CO REPRESENTED AT YOUTH CONFERENCE

Leaders of youth of Philadelphia, Pa., Cambridge, Mass., Chicago, Ill., Dayton, Cleveland and Columbus, together with throngs of young people made the eighteenth annual youth conference at Lakewood Methodist church, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the largest and most inspiring meeting of its kind held since the organization of the youth of the country.

The addresses and discussions of the conference centered around the following subject: "Christian Youth building a New World." The challenge to youth was this: "The trail lies ahead, then follow ye who dare."

Pickaway-co was represented at the conference by the orchestra of the county youth division and delegates from several churches. Among those who attended were young people from the Presbyterian church, Methodist, and United Brethren churches in Circleville; St. Paul's Evangelical church, Hedges chapel, Ashville U. B., Emmitt's chapel, and Williamsport M. E. church. All of the delegates were delightfully entertained in private homes and every courtesy shown them.

The next youth conference will be held in Dayton in 1934. It is hoped even a greater number of young people will be able to attend.

In the Pickaway-co group at the conference were Mrs. Bernard Young, county director; Thomas Heffner, president of the county division; Elizabeth Reber, vice president; Ralph Delong, treasurer; Hazel Wolford, secretary; Betty Lee Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McClure, Ann Reber, Homer Reber, Jean Balthasar, Maxine Canter, Ray Beery, Vera May Zanglein, Dana Estelle, Lawrence

Calendar

MONDAY

Monday club to meet at 7:30 p. m. The Twentieth Century Music club of Mt. Sterling will present the program.

TUESDAY

Circleville chapter Order of the Eastern Star has regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. All past matrons will be guests of honor. Program and social hour will follow the business.

THURSDAY

Loyal Daughters class of the United Brethren church has Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Charles McAllister, E. Franklin-st., at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Stanley Goodman will be assisting hostess.

Business and Professional Women's club have dinner meeting at 6:30 p. m. in the club rooms. A program in charge of Miss Elma Rains will follow the dinner.

Ladies Aid of the United Brethren church meets at 2 p. m. at the Community house. Mrs. Bertha Walker is program chairman.

FRIDAY

Washington Grange has regular meeting at Washington-twp school at 7:30 p. m.

Women's Christian Temperance union has postponed monthly meeting one week.

SATURDAY

Captain Jonathan Alder chapter Daughters of 1812 will have an all-day meeting with a covered-dish luncheon at 12 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Nevill, 195 W. High-st. This will be the last meeting of the year. All members requested to attend.

Wolford, Paul, Wayne, Philip and George Wilson, James Boggs, Dorothy Howell, Montford Kirkwood, Robert Vandervort, Eleanor Vandervort, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Horn, Jr., Ned Hardin, Dick Plum, James Mowery, Rosemary Boggs, Franklin Crites, Mary May Haswell, Marvin Leist, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Dumm, Marvin Dumm and Mrs. George Hunsicker and a group of four boys from Williamsport.

17 LOCAL PERSONS ATTEND LEAGUE MEET

Seventeen members of the Luther league of Trinity Lutheran church motored to St. Paul Sunday for the fall meeting of the Scioto and Hocking Valley Luther League association.

During the business session officers were elected. Harold Boyer of Canal Winchester was named president; Gladden Troutman, this city, vice president; Miss Mary Crist, this city, secretary, and Mr. Foor of Lockbourne, treasurer.

Dr. Otto Mees, president of Capital university, Columbus, gave the address at the evening session. His subject was "Youth and Its Perplexing Problems."

PERSONALS

Judge and Mrs. Stanley L. Orr, of Cleveland, were Saturday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Johnson, Northridge-rd.

Mrs. C. D. Closson and daughter, Miss Catherine N. Pickaway-st, left Saturday for Charlotte, N. C. to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Harris and Mr. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bern Shaker, Mingo-st., and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, E. Franklin-st., left Sunday on a motor trip to West Liberty, Ky., where they will visit Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. A. J. Blevins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shasteen and daughter, Bernice E. Union-st., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leeper in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Haswell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Noggle, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sampson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Steely of Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Betzhart and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Abbott, of Scottsburg, N. J., visited Sunday with the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Betz of Washington-twp.

Mrs. Burt Irwin of Toledo, returned Monday to her home after spending several days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davidson, Watt-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Teegardin, of Columbus, visited with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. B. Work and Mr. Work, N. Court-st., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnhill, N. Court-st., had as their guests Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross of Athens.

Mrs. Mary Bower, Pleasant-st, left Monday morning for Oskosh, Wis., where she will attend the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Federation of the American Lutheran church. She is delegate from the Ladies' society and Von Bora society of the local Lutheran church.

TWO ATTEND DEMOCRATIC LUNCHEON IN COLUMBUS

Mrs. Joe Cronley, chairman of the Federated Democratic Women's club of Pickaway-co, and Miss Nellie Osterle, both of Ashville, attended a Democratic luncheon at one o'clock, Monday, in the Hall of Mirrors at the Desher-Wallack hotel, Columbus.

This was a special meeting of the state central committeewomen, executive committeewomen, members-at-large, supervisors and women county chairmen and headquarters staff.

Mrs. Izzetta Jewell Miller from the National Speakers Bureau at Washington D. C., was the guest speaker.

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED... NOW

Note Threatening Gloria Vanderbilt Investigated

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A heavy police guard was being maintained today at the home of Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt.

The guard was established around the house when a letter threatening Mrs. Morgan's ten-year-old daughter, Gloria, for whose custody Mrs. Morgan and the child's aunt, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, are battling in the courts, was received, detectives revealed.

The complete text of the letter was not obtainable, but police said it read approximately as follows: "If you value the life of your child do not fail to meet me in front of the Metropolitan theatre in Brooklyn at 10:30 p. m. Friday without fail. I'll be waiting for you. If you do not keep the appointment, you will hear from me again."

No signature appeared on the note, but in its place were two circular symbols resembling those found on the Lindbergh ransom notes.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was instructed in the note to "keep powdering" her nose so that the writer might recognize her.

Mrs. Vanderbilt turned the note over to police immediately and it was decided to have a police-

Waiwai Indians
The Waiwai Indians were friendly and of very pleasant disposition. For Indians, they were remarkably good looking, and some of the girls could have compared favorably in this regard with their white-skinned sisters of North America. Their skin was almost white. The name of the tribe, in fact, was derived originally from this circumstance. The word "Waiwai" means "tapoca" in the dialect of several British Guiana Indian tribes.

CLIFONA MODERN THEATRE

Last Times Tonight!
Prices 10c-20c Till 7:30 P. M.

Musical Comedy and News.

Tuesday & Wednes.

Under New Management

Prescription Service
Drugs—Fountain
Sundries,
Temple Drug Store
Charles P. Miller, Prop.
Masonic Temple

BROTHER

WANTS

A

TELEPHONE!

Our Roll Special

for TUESDAY
AND WEDNESDAY

MAPLE NUT ROLLS.

20c doz.

WALLACE'S
BAKERY

127 W. Main St.

...AT TODAY'S PRICE, THE BIGGEST WASHER VALUE YOU CAN BUY

When you compare Maytag quality and price with any other washer you see why the housewives of this nation have bought more Maytags in one half of 1934, than during the whole year of 1933.

■ This is proof that American women today are insisting upon genuine quality.

■ Visit the Maytag dealer and see this Maytag for yourself.

For homes without electricity, any Maytag may be had with Gasoline Motor at slight additional cost.

THE MAYTAG COMPANY
MANUFACTURERS
FOUNDED 1897 NEWTON, IOWA

10-11-34

TERMS
$5 Down, $1.25 Week.
Maytag Washers
Sold in Circleville By
PETTIT TIRE & BATTERY SHOP
130 S. Court St. Phone 214.

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED... NOW

WHEN YOU FEEL
"ALL IN"

CRAWFORD BURTON...gentleman rider...twice winner of the Maryland Hunt Cup...dean of the strenuous sport of steeplechase riding...and a Camel smoker.

HOUSEWIFE. Mrs. Charles Daly says: "Camels pick up my energy when I feel tired, and they have a mild, delicate flavor that a woman likes."

AIR HOSTESS. Miss Marian McMichael: "When the run is over, my first move is to light a Camel. A Camel quickly relieves any feeling of tiredness."

SPORTSMAN. Rex Beach, famous fisherman, says: "When a big fellow is safely landed, I light a Camel and feel as good as new."

Have you ever tried this enjoyable way of heightening energy?

Crawford Burton, the famous American steeplechase rider, is speaking: "Whether I'm tired from riding a hard race, or from the pressure and tension of a crowded business day, I feel refreshed and restored just as soon as I get a chance to smoke a Camel. So I'm a pretty incessant smoker, not only because Camels give me a 'lift' in energy, but because they taste so good! And never yet have Camels upset my nerves." Note these important points: that Camels taste so good. And that they make available your stored-up energy.

Science tells us that Camel's "energizing effect" has been fully confirmed. Try Camels yourself. You can smoke them constantly. For Camels are made from finer and MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS. They never taste flat...never get on your nerves.

CAMEL CARAVAN with Glen Gray's Casa Loma Orchestra, Walter O'Keefe, Annette Hanshaw, and other Headliners—over WABC-Columbia Network.

Tuesday, 10 p. m. E. S. T.—9 p. m. C. S. T.—8 p. m. M. S. T.—7 p. m. P. S. T. Thursday, 9 p. m. E. S. T.—8 p. m. C. S. T.—7:30 p. m. M. S. T.—8:30 p. m. P. S. T.

TOBACCO MEN ALL KNOW:

"Camels are made from finer, More Expensive Tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

Circleville Herald

Established in 1882, and the Union-Herald, established in 1882.

Published weekly, except Sunday.
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISH-ING COMPANY.
J. J. Hermann, Manager.
A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER

MEMBER
Ohio Newspaper Association
International News Service
King Feature Syndicate
Ohio Select List
Bureau of Advertising
NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
JOHN W. CULLEN CO.
No. 8 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.
502 Fifth Ave., New York City
General Motors Building, Detroit Michigan

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week, $6 per year, in advance. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory per year $3; Zones one and two, $4 per year, beyond first and second postal zones, per year $5.50.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville as Second Class Matter.

Liking for Good Books

THERE is something disarming to the critical spirit, even at its fiercest, in the subject of children's reading. It is closely knit up with the most precious early memories of most parents and in one to which the parent with the well-being of the child at heart must give much serious thought during formative years.

At all times of the year there unwind before teachers, librarians and others acquainted with books a constant procession of frankly bewildered parents.
Vaguely they feel that their children are not reading the right books and very often they lead a vain quest for the "right" literature.

It is more than possible that the puzzled parents are reading the wrong books themselves; but, urged on by a lonely and pathetic instinct akin to that impulse which causes father and mother to sacrifice and sacrifice for their children, they want their progeny to avoid their mistakes, read only the best books and be the better for it.

No parental persuasion is necessary to create in the child mind an interest in the fairy tale and the school and boy and girl come naturally by their love for romance and adventure. It is ade-cent youth that needs wise and tactful guidance in the selection of reading matter.

A fondness for good books doesn't just happen. It must be cultivated in the child, as well as in the adult who did not acquire it in his youth or lost it in the transition from youth to maturity.
Homes with good libraries well-read by adult members of the family seldom are the scene of juvenile revolt against helpful reading.

Some men are well-to-do because they are hard-to-do.

Oh, for the good old days when your note was good because the banker liked you.

SCHOOL DAYS

THE LITTLE BROWN SCHOOL HOUSE

1. What Apostle killed himself?
Answer: Judas Iscariot.
2. What kind of rock is woven into cloth, and why?
Answer: Asbestos, because it is incombustible.
3. What is the unit of weight used in weighing precious stones?
Answer: The carat (3.17 grains)

Democratic Ticket

State and County

For Governor
MARTIN L. DAVEY

For Lieutenant Governor
HAROLD G. MOSIER

For Secretary of State
GEORGE S. MYERS

For Treasurer of State
JOSEPH T. FERGUSON

For Attorney General
HERBERT S. DUFFY

For U. S. Senator
VIC DONAHAY

For Congressman-at-Large
CHARLES V. TRUAX

For Representative to Congress
MELL G. UNDERWOOD

For State Senator
WILLIAM J. SPANGLER

For Rep. to Gen. Assembly
CLARK K. HUNSICKER

For Clerk of Courts
ARTHUR L. WILDER

For County Commissioner
JOHN W. HAY

For County Auditor
CLIFFORD M. WHITE

For County Recorder
MARION ROWE LITZ

For County Treasurer
ROBERT G. COLVILLE

For Sheriff
CHARLES H. RADCLIFF

For Coroner
C. E. BOWERS

JUDICIAL TICKET

Judge Supreme Court
HOWARD L. BEVIS

Judge Supreme Court
(Full Term)

N. CRAIG MURKIN

CHARLES N. ZIMMERMAN

The Unofficial Observer

DEATH SONG

by JOAN CLAYTON AND MALCOLM LOGAN

CHAPTER XXIV

The two quarrelsome inseparables, Clendinning and Cross, were among the witnesses summoned.
Cross, looking very healthy, sought my sympathy at once.
"It's absolutely inconsiderate, making me come all the way up here!" he complained. "They should have held the inquest at the cottage, if they had to hold one at all, don't you think so, Mr. Fowler?"
"They probably won't keep you more than a few minutes," I said.
Clendinning interrupted with a short, sardonic laugh.
"It won't hurt a big fat hulk like you," he said. "I wish my heart was as good as yours."

"If you were as bad as mine, you'd probably be dead!" Cross retorted angrily. "Why, the specialist in New York told me—"
"I know what he told you, Milton.
My lord, I've heard it often enough!
He probably told you you had a bad heart just to get rid of you."

A deputy sheriff stepped through the door of the manager's office and called, "Mr. Cross! Mr. Cross!"
"You don't have to yell at me,"
Cross replied with great dignity.
"Coming."

The crowd made way for him and he walked to the door at his usual slow, stolid gait. Clendinning sat down in a chair. He was pale and his respiration was rapid.
"What's the news of Lakeside?"
I asked.

Clendinning grinned. He took off his glasses and began to polish them.
His eyes looked strange and unseeing without the spectacles.
"Milton got in a temper last night and smashed my record of 'Waiting For You.' I'm afraid I annoyed the poor scold fellow, playing it so much."

"You seem very interested in that record," I remarked.
He replaced his glasses and whispered, "That record means something!"
I don't know what that means, but there's some reason that particular record was on the photograph when we found Vail. I've been studying the words. I copied them all before Cross got sore and smashed it."

"You think there's some significance in the words?"
He nodded solemnly. "It's there, all right. Sometimes I seem just about to understand it." He sighed.
"But it always gets away from me."

Cross came out of the room then and Clendinning's name was called.
"Tell Fowler to look into it," he said and then he went to give his testimony. Cross went directly to the prison in back of the building, got in the waiting bus and was driven back to his cottage, looking as though he expected to be fatally stricken. I saw the words of the sheriff's usual manner that I burst into laughter. When Mark spoke, his voice was ponderous and slightly embarrassed:

"Just keep your eyes open, Mr.
Hillyer," he quoted the sheriff. "Of course, I don't expect anything to happen. The case is practically washed up. But you never can tell when something's going to break. Just take it easy and let things ride, but let me know if anything happens."

He became himself again and reaching over, pulled a photograph from under some magazines on his bedside table.
"Here's an enlargement of the photograph of the murderer he gave me for a souvenir. When I've solved this case, I'm going to ask him to autograph it—if he can write."

I looked at the picture, magnified many times. The original had shown the vague, blurred outline of part of a man's back in a break in the foliage behind Lakeside Cottage. The enlargement had magnified that overworked torso, but had made it only more indistinct. I looked at it, shaking my head.

"You could magnify it a million diameters, and it still wouldn't show anything," Mark said as he took it back. "Poor Finn! It seems as though the murderer was in Cap-tella's flight."

"Are you going to let things ride, as Finn asked you?"
"You should know me better than that. You know what a nasty prying keyhole peeper sort of mind I have. Let things ride, heck! I'm going right on with my quiet little investigation, and you're going to help me. I want you to take a little trip for me."

He picked up a blue-covered timetable from the stand beside him and opened it.
"I've been reading time-tables," he said, "not that I expect to use them myself soon, but just out of curiosity. Finn seems to have forgotten it, but you may remember that Vail was expecting a visitor the day he was killed. I thought the visitor was right here in the sanatorium, but there's a possibility that it was someone from New York."

"When Finn found out that none of the taxi drivers in Cold Valley had driven anyone here just after rest period, he decided that the visitor didn't come from outside.
But remember, Vail wanted to see that person very privately. If I wanted to see someone without the whole sanatorium knowing it, I wouldn't let him get off the train at Cold Valley. I'd tell him to get off one station above or one below and get a taxi there. It wouldn't be a much longer ride, and it would be a lot more private."

"There's an idea!" I exclaimed.
"Why didn't someone think of it sooner?"
"I should have," Mark admitted.
"I hope the trail's not too cold now.
But last week there were so many other things that for a while I forgot the mysterious visitor." He opened the time-table. "The afternoon train that arrives at Cold Valley at 3:02 gets to the station below, Echoville, at 2:40. It arrives at the station above Cold Valley at 3:18."

"That would be too late," I said.
"If you wanted to get to the sanatorium just at 3:30 you'd have to get off either at Cold Valley or Echoville."

Mark nodded. "Smart boy. By a process of elimination, it appears that Echoville's the place. I want you to go there this afternoon, right after lunch. Don't drive down, take a taxi. See if you can find any taxi driver there who brought anyone to the san last Thursday afternoon."

Immediately after lunch I set out on my mission. My taxi I summoned from Cold Valley. As I drove down the long road through the woods that led to the entrance of the sanatorium, I wondered how I could make my inquiries without seeming too officious. I regretted that I had not discussed it with Mark, but after some hard thinking I found a way. I settled back in my seat, very much pleased with my ingenuity.

We rolled through the gates of the sanatorium and out on the smooth state highway. It was fairly good riding, but the country showed the effects of the long heat wave. The grass was sear and the leaves of the trees were drooping and listless. We passed a few poor, scattered farms, a golf course and several frame summer hotels and fanned ourselves and gossiped. It took us about twenty minutes to reach Echoville, and there at the railroad station I dismissed the taxi.

(To Be Continued)

Copyright, 1933, by Joan Clayton and Malcolm Logan.
Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Glaucoma One of Most Serious Eye Diseases

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health,
New York City

RECENTLY a YOUNG man talked to me about what he called "spots before his eyes." A member of his family had suffered from an eye disease called "glaucoma," which often causes blindness. He feared this was to be his fate. I was happy to assure the youth that he had no serious disease of the eye but merely needed glasses.

Dr. Copeland

Glaucoma is one of the most serious diseases of the eye. Of the many disturbances that lead to adult blindness this is one of the most common. As a rule the disease afflicts persons of middle age.
Very rarely is it encountered in infants and children.

The actual fundamental cause of glaucoma is not known. We know that it follows defective drainage of the fluids within the eyeball. This leads to hardening of the eyeball. This in turn continues the optic nerve fibers are destroyed. Unless corrected, permanent blindness results.

Neglect Is Dangerous

In the acute form of the disease the sufferer complains of intense pain, redness of the eyeball and rapid loss of vision. These symptoms are often confused with other and less important eye disorders. Neglect of them in glaucoma is dangerous. The sufferer should consult the doctor immediately and if operation is advised it should not be delayed. Successful results are obtained only in the early stages of the disease.

The chronic form of glaucoma is often overlooked. The symptoms of this form of the disease are not pronounced as they are in acute glau-coma. This explains the all too common negligence in the care of this serious disorder of the eye.

As a rule the chronic form progresses very slowly and without any severe pain or discomfort. There is a gradual loss of vision. This impairment of the sight is characterized by difficulty in detecting objects that are not in the direct line of vision. Those things that the normal person sees to the right and left are not caught by the diseased eye. The sufferer also notices at night colored halos around lights. He may have mild pain or feeling of eye fatigue, which he usually attributes to eyestrain and the need of glasses.

Early Treatment Essential

The pain and sensation of discomfort may entirely disappear, so that for a long period of time the patient is free of any symptoms. As time passes the distress returns and again the vision becomes abnormal. In most instances the vision is poor in the morning and improves during the day.

Glaucoma should not be confused with cataract. Careful examination of the eyes with a test of the tension, clearly distinguishes between the two afflictions. Glaucoma differs from cataract in that neglect of the latter is not as dangerous as neglect of glaucoma.

Let me repeat that an early diagnosis of glaucoma is essential to recovery. If all cases of glaucoma were recognized in the early stages of the disease there would be a marked decrease in the numbers of blind people. It is imperative that medical attention be given promptly if the vision is to be saved.

Answers to Health Queries

Mrs. B. S. Q.—What would you advise for head noises or clicking
"tinnitis" of the ear?

A.—The condition is usually due to nasal catarrh. For full particulars restate your question and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

H. C. Q.—How can one overcome nervousness?

A.—Nervousness is usually due to a run down condition. Build up the general health. Take cod liver oil for a tonic. For full particulars restate your question and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
(Copyright, 1934, K. F. S., Inc.)

Household Arts

Cross stitch—all in black or the color of the chair or done in varied colors! And what a charming set it will make! You can have a very effective pillow too, by using just the design of the chair back. The crosses are 6 to the inch so the work can be done quickly. This set is something that will meet with instant approval as a gift, so why not make it and store it away till you need it?

In pattern 5240 you will find a transfer pattern of a chair back 12 1/2 x 15 inches and two arm rests 5 1/2 x 12 1/2 inches; instructions for making it or a pillow; material requirements; and illustrations of the stitches needed.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Herald Household Arts Dept., 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

Complete, Diagrammed
Marian Martin Sew Chart
Included.

PATTERN 9153

No, it's not too early to start thinking about what to give to whom for Christmas—not if you're a wise girl and remember how rich you always get in the end.
We'd suggest that you first make yourself a pair of these smart shirtmaker pajamas. Then when you fall in love with the comfortable blouse with its trim notched collar and cunning pleated pockets
—when you try wearing it tucked in at the waist or over the trousers—and finally when you see how "just right" the pajamas are for lounging and how comfortable for sleeping, you'll want to make up several pairs for your very special friends.

Pattern 9153 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch fabric.
Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN PAT-TERN. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER AND SIZE of each pattern.

THE FALL AND WINTER
ISSUE OF THE MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK is now off the press. It is big fashion news and a delightful reading. It is filled with stunning and easy-to-make patterns for street and house dresses, blouses, skirts, lingerie, sporty clothes... all the essentials of a smart outfit for matron, maiden or little child. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER
TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Herald Pattern Department, 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

MOVIES

AT THE CLIFTONA

As the exceedingly beautiful, dangerous and fearless heroine of Paramount's "The Notorious Sophie Lang," coming Tuesday and Wednesday to the Cliftona Theatre, Gertrude Michael is cast in the title role as the exotic international crook who is fond of jewelry and men—especially jewelry.

The film is a fast-moving romance of a beautiful girl-crook, who outwits the police of several countries, steals the thunder from all her notorious rivals,—and the hearts from her many admirers,— and gets away with it.

AT THE GRAND

A BRAND NEW romantic team comes to the screen in the persons of Dick Powell and Ginger Rogers who appear as screen lovers in "Twenty Million Sweethearts," the First National picture at the Grand Theatre.

No more popular couple could appear together than these two,
who are said to be not only admirably suited to each other temperamentally and physically, but to work in perfect harmony. Both have won their spurs as popular screen players as well as singers of exceptional ability.

Powell rose to screen fame from an orchestra leader through such pictures as "42nd Street," "Footlight Parade," "Gold Diggers of 1933," "Wonder Bar" and others.

Plodding through days of periodical pain is dangerous and so unnecessary today as to be almost inexcusable.

Ask your doctor or druggist about
YATONA—they recommend it,
because it is the only one-purpose
tonic corrective—because it is non-habit-forming and does not leave "brain-dullness."

Just give YATONA one trial.

YATONA
SEDATIVE, ANTI-SPASMODIC,
HYGIENIC AROMATIC POWDER.
For Sale at All Drug Stores
Trial Size 50c.

BUY SOMETHING
YOU NEED... NOW

Children's Coughs
Need Creomulsion

Always get the best, fastest and surest treatment for your child's cough or cold. Prudent mothers more and more are turning to Creomulsion for any cough or cold that starts.

Creomulsion emulsifies creosote with six other important medicinal elements—it is truly an elegant prescription. It is not a cheap remedy, but contains no narcotics and your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion. (adv.)

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

10-22

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13
14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100

Herewith is the solution to Saturday's puzzle.

10-22

1—range 54—suffer re- 72—sow 11—brute
6—appendage 55—morse for 73—assuaged 12—to lave at mouth of 56—spikes of 13—celebrity 19—stalk various 57—rowing im- 14—pommar 22—corrode animals 58—recedes 15—largon 25—varied 10—fold of 60—safe where 16—song of 28—muteness 14—front of a 61—guests are 17—joy 30—to lease coat 62—entertained 18—occupied in 32—dresses 15—egg-shaped 63—a large 19—productive 33—a celestial 16—to bound 64—vestal 20—labor 34—sphere
17—scene of 65—giving off- 4—writing 35—to be situ-public 66—proof of a 5—instrument 36—smell 18—enact law 67—made repa- 6—clayry 37—attempts 20—and not 68—besides 7—turned 38—single spot
21—closest 69—thin cutting 8—fury 39—on cards
22—the girl re- 70—combine 9—veils of 40—nourished ferred to 71—colored 10—wing of a 41—follows a 23—joyous 72—colored 11—house 42—beast
24—joyous 73—colored 12—house 43—beast
25—joyous 74—colored 13—house 44—beast
26—joyous 75—colored 14—house 45—beast
27—put to the 76—colored 15—house 46—beast
28—tip 77—colored 16—house 47—beast
29—to tip 78—colored 17—house 48—beast
30—oleoresin 79—colored 18—house 49—beast used in 80—colored 19—house 50—beast various 81—colored 20—house 51—beast 33—an impor- 82—colored 21—house 52—beast tant source 83—colored 22—house 53—beast of oil 84—colored 23—house 54—beast
35—river in 85—colored 24—house 55—beast
Germany 86—colored 25—house 56—beast 36—outgrowth 87—colored 26—house 57—beast of stem 88—colored 27—house 58—beast 40—fastened 89—colored 28—house 59—beast firmly 90—colored 29—house 60—beast
42—substance 91—colored 30—house 61—beast 44—a brewed 92—colored 31—house 62—beast liquor 93—colored 32—house 63—beast
45—a lichen 94—colored 33—house 64—beast
47—finished 95—colored 34—house 65—beast
48—to jet 96—colored 35—house 66—beast
50—visage 97—colored 36—house 67—beast

Copyright, 1934, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

PICKAWAY-TWP SCHOOL NOTES

Fourteen members of the senior class of Pickaway-twp
school were in Columbus, Friday, Oct. 19, to have their pictures taken. They also visited several places of interest—the blind institution, the feeble-minded institution, Dispatch building, Ohio State university museum, State house and the A. T. U. tower.

YOUNG MOTHERS

Don't experiment with children's colds...Treat them as your own mother did—externally. No dosing! Just rub throat and chest with...

VICKS VapoRub

PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

WOMEN WHO SUFFER

Plodding through days of periodical pain is dangerous and so unnecessary today as to be almost
inexcusable.

Ask your doctor or druggist about
YATONA—they recommend it,
because it is the only one-purpose
tonic corrective—because it is
non-habit-forming and does not
leave "brain-dullness."

Just give YATONA one trial.

You'll find it in the. CLASSIFIED

The CIRCLEVILLE HERALD and THE UNION-HERALD CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING INFORMATION

All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the regular Circleville Herald style of type. The publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertisement copy.

Advertising orders for irregular insertions taken the one-time rate. No ad is taken for less than a basis of three lines. Count five average words to the line on paid advertisement.

Charged ads will be received by telephone, and if paid at Circleville Herald office within six days from the first date of insertion cash rate will be allowed.

Ads ordered for three or seven times and stopped before expiration will be charged for only the number of times the ad appeared and adjustment made at the rate earned. All ads ordered seven times will be published in the Union-Herald (Weekly) and will be counted as one insertion.

Ads ordered printed in Tuesday's or Wednesday's issues of the Daily Herald received up to the same day. A charge of 50 cents is made for publishing Cards of Thanks.

Special rates for yearly advertising upon request. Careful attention given to mail orders.

Rate per line for consecutive insertions. One line . . . . . 9c per line. Three times for the price of two. Seven times for the price of three. Prices on Display Classified furnished on request.

The publishers will be responsible only for one incorrect insertion of any advertisement.

Announcements

10—Lost, Strayed, Found

LOST—Ladies black purse containing Blue Valley cream check. Finder return to Herald office. Reward. —10

Business Service

18—Business Services Offered

Hair cut 20c—Shave 15c 9 yrs. experience. Quality work JOHN'S BARBER SHOP 425 S. Pickaway St. —18

CIRCLEVILLE Transfer Co. Local and long distance moving. Storage. All loads insured. Phone 1227. 119 N. Scioto-st. —18

JOB PRINTING—Done at Fair Prices. Let us do your next printing job. Quality and Service Always. THE HERALD Job Shop. Phone 782. —18

20—Cleaning, Dyeing, Renovating

HAVE YOUR winter suits and coats cleaned now at Barnhill's. Phone 710. —20

20—Repairing, Refinishing

WATCHES—Clocks and spectacles repaired. Special frames at low prices. The Little Shop, Press Hosler, N. Court-st. —29

Watch and Clock Sales and Service. Adjusting Free. Expert work. Reasonable prices. GERALD E. LEIST, 312 Logan St. —32

Employment

32—Help Wanted—Female

MAKE MONEY copying names, addresses for mail order firms, experience unnecessary, no canvassing. Write for details. United Advertising, 1314 DeKalb Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. —32

Financial

40—Money to Loan

LOANS for general farm purposes are made at cost by the Columbus Production Credit Association, 55 East State St. a non-profit cooperative organization. The interest rate is 5% a year. Local Representative, Pickaway Co. Farm Bureau, Circleville, O. —40

Instruction

42—Correspondence Courses

WANTED—Several ambitious men now employed, mechanically inclined to start immediate training to install, service and repair all makes of Electric Refrigerators and Air Conditioning Units. Write REFRIGERATION INST. care HERALD. —42

Livestock

48—Horses, Cattle, Vehicles

FOR SALE—Jersey milk cow. Call 677, J. B. Wood. —48

FOR SALE—Pure bred cheviot sheep, Ram and ewe lambs. Also yearling rams. McCoy Bros. Phone 1831, Circleville. —48

FOR SALE—5 yr. old cow, 9 pigs, weight, 70 lbs. Rev. C. L. Thomas E. Ringgold. —48

Merchandise

51—Articles for Sale

DRI-BRITE, non-rubbing floor wax, 75c pte. now 60c; 1.25 qts. now $1. Barrere & Nickerson. —51

Merchandise

55—Farm and Dairy Products

JONATHAN APPLE cider, 20c gal. The Marion Bros. Greenhouses. Lancaster-pk. Bring your own jug. —55

FOR SALE—Potatoes, prices very reasonable. Herbert N. Ruff, 2 1-2 mi. N. W. of Amanda. —55

POTATOES—Call C. H. Palm, 9171 four your winter potatoes. Priced right while they last. —55

62—Musical Merchandise

BEAUTIFUL Baby Grand Piano. Must sell at once. Will sacrifice for quick sale. 150 W. Main-st. —62

WILL TRADE guitar for tenor banjo or banjo uke. Inq. 626 S. Clinton-st. —62

SMALL Studio piano for sale. Ideal for apt. or small home. Bargain. Terms. 150 W. Main-st. —62

62—Radio Equipment

PHILCO RADIO, Model 60B, $1 down, $1 week. Pettit Tire & Battery Shop. —62

64—Specials at the Stores

SCHRAFFT'S Chocolates, lb. box 60c, 2 lb. box $1.20 at Cook's Confectionery, 132 N. Court-st. —64

DOUBLE KAY Toasted Nuts, almonds, pecans, cashews, peanuts and mixed nuts. Ebert's Soda Grill. —64

SUEDE and Pig Skin Jackets, $5 up. Caddy Miller Hat Shop. —64

Real Estate For Rent

74—Apartments and Flats

FOR RENT—Modern apt. two rooms, kitchenette, and bath. First floor, central. Phone 72. —74

MODERN Apartments for light housekeeping for rent. Phone 1265. —69

77—House for Rent

MODERN 6 room house for rent, with bath. Phone 582 or 67. Clarence Helvering. —77

Real Estate For Sale

83—Farms for Sale

FOR SALE—A dandy country home of 42 acres on State Route. Price $5000.00; A 25 acre truck and poultry farm on a good piece, $1500.00; 7 room frame dwelling, 223 Mount-st, $1800.00; A well located country home, 97 acres, $6000.00; A dandy modern home. Good location, and several small homes and investment properties. For further information call or see CIRCLE REALTY CO. Rooms 3 and 4, Masonic Temple. Phone 234 or 162. —84

Classified Display

Livestock

CALL CIRCLEVILLE FERTILIZER

Reversal Charges TEL 1364 Reverse Charges E. G. Buchstab, Inc. —48

Automotive

Used Cars For Sale

1934 Plymouth Coupe, Rumble Seat.

1933 Plymouth Coupe, Rumble Seat.

1933 Chevrolet Business Coupe.

DE SOTO PLYMOUTH BUICK DEALERS.

Distributors for Willard Batteries.

E. E. CLIFTON & DEWEY SPEAKMAN

119-121 S. Court St. Phone 50.

CLASSIFIED ADS PAY

Automotive

Guaranteed USED CARS

32—V8 Sedan

32—V8 Tudor

33—V8 Coupe

30—Ford Roadster

31—Ford Tudor

29—Ford Tudor

30—Packard Roadster.

TERMS AND TRADE.

PAUL D. HELWAGEN

Rear 127 E. Main St.

GOOD Used Cars PRICED RIGHT

1931 Buick Sedan.

1930 Chrysler Coupe.

1932 Buick Sport Coupe.

1931 Chev. D. L. Coach.

1931 Ford Tudor.

1928 Chevrolet Sedan.

1933 Long Dual Truck.

The Harden Stevenson Co.

132 E. Franklin St.

Merchandise

FOR THE BEST LUNCH IN TOWN

Come To

THE MECCA RESTAURANT

128 W. Main St.

STOVE REPAIRS

For all make Stoves. Stove, Pipe, Fittings, Etc. Agents for Moore's Air Tight Heaters and Ranges.

TRADE IN YOUR OLD STOVE.

J. R. WILSON

Pythian Castle Alley.

CLASSIFIED ADS PAY

You Can't Go Wrong on Using Classified Ads

Victor 18-Plate BATTERIES Exchange $3.95

BUMPER BARS $1.00

Pair For Ford V-8 and Chevrolet. Model A Ford

HEATERS Cast Iron $1.95

Hot Water HEATERS Up $8.95

Gordon Tire & Accessory Co.

432 E. Mound St. Phone 297.

Automotive

QUALITY USED CARS

1929 Chevrolet Coach.

1929 Chevrolet Coupe.

1930 Dodge Coach.

1930 Ford Sport Rdst.

1930 Chevrolet Sedan.

1928 Chevrolet Coach

1931 Ford Std. Coupe

1928 Erskine Coach.

1928 Whippet Sedan.

1930 Pontiac Convertible Coupe

1931 Hudson Deluxe Sedan

1931 DeSoto Sedan

1928 Erskine Roadster.

TERMS AND TRADE.

PAUL D. HELWAGEN

Rear 127 E. Main St.

GOOD Used Cars PRICED RIGHT

1931 Buick Sedan.

1930 Chrysler Coupe.

1932 Buick Sport Coupe.

1931 Chev. D. L. Coach.

1931 Ford Tudor.

1928 Chevrolet Sedan.

1933 Long Dual Truck.

The Harden Stevenson Co.

132 E. Franklin St.

Merchandise

FOR THE BEST LUNCH IN TOWN

Come To

THE MECCA RESTAURANT

128 W. Main St.

STOVE REPAIRS

For all make Stoves. Stove, Pipe, Fittings, Etc. Agents for Moore's Air Tight Heaters and Ranges.

TRADE IN YOUR OLD STOVE.

J. R. WILSON

Pythian Castle Alley.

CLASSIFIED ADS PAY

You Can't Go Wrong on Using Classified Ads

Victor 18-Plate BATTERIES Exchange $3.95

BUMPER BARS $1.00

Pair For Ford V-8 and Chevrolet. Model A Ford

HEATERS Cast Iron $1.95

Hot Water HEATERS Up $8.95

Gordon Tire & Accessory Co.

432 E. Mound St. Phone 297.

Dead Stock

Prompt Reliable Service Phone 372, Chillicothe Ex. Reverse The Charge CHILLICOTHE FERTILIZER CO Chillicothe, Ohio.

Help Kidneys.

If poorly functioning Kidneys and Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Night, Nervousness, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness, Burning, Smarting, Itching, or Acidity try the guaranteed Doctor's Prescription Cystex (Sas-tex).

—Must fix you up or money back. Only 75¢ at druggists.

LOST 20 LBS. OF FAT IN JUST 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo. writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 150 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 130 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tons of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drugstore—the best for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

Classified Display

Financial

FARM LOANS

We are making first mortgage loans on choice farms at 5 per cent interest. Appraisals within one week. Quick closing. No abstract.

Write or Call

W. D. HEISKELL

Williamsport, Ohio.

Authorized agent for Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

WANTED

Columbian Certificates

Circle Realty Co.

LOANS

MONEY LOANED ON HOMES IN CIRCLEVILLE

THE SCIOTO BUILDING & LOAN CO.

J. G. Goeller, President

E. S. Neudling, Vice President

O. S. Howard, Treasurer

P. H. Nicholas, Secretary

G. A. Leht, Attorney

For further information address the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, Columbus, O.

D. P. & FLOYD BARKER, Lancaster, Ohio.

(Oct. 8, 15, 22, 29, Nov. 5, 12)

LEGAL NOTICE

Public notice is hereby given that D. P. & Floyd Barker, Lancaster, Ohio, has filed with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, an application to abandon Certificate Nos. 2729 and 3625 under which property is transported between Millersport and Lancaster, Ohio, intra-state and between the Ohio-Ky. Va. state line and Ohio-Penn.-Ohio-Mich. Ohio Ind. state line and Cincinnati, Ohio, intra-state, and to extend Certificate No. 885 over same routes giving the same service using the present equipment under Certificate No. 885 and in addition present equipment under Certificate Nos. 2729 and 3625 consisting of seven 1-2 ton trucks and five trailers.

For further information address the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, Columbus, O.

D. P. & FLOYD BARKER, Lancaster, Ohio.

(Oct. 8, 15, 22, 29, Nov. 5, 12)

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

(Continued From Page One)

Woodrow Wilson in 1916, it was John Francis Neylan, campaign manager for Hiram Johnson, who had kept him from the White House.

Hughes wanted to meet Johnson and get his blessing. Neylan opposed it. Failure of that meeting to take place probably cost Hughes the Presidency. For until the California vote came in Wilson almost conceded defeat.

But last week the man who had defeated Hughes was just one of many legal applicants before the

Auctions and Legals

NOTICE

Court of Common Pleas, Pickaway County, Ohio.

Alton E. McCafferty, et al.,

Lawrence McCafferty, residing in

Gaston, Oregon R. P. D., and Myrtle

McCafferty, his wife, residing in Gaston, Oregon R. P. D., will take notice that on the 11th day of September, 1934, Roy McCafferty

filed his petition in the Common

Pleas Court, Pickaway County, Ohio,

in case No. 17303, against the above named parties and others, praying for partition of 42.49 acres of land in Monroe Township, Pick-away County, Ohio, being Lot No. 9

of the subdivision of lands of Jackson Baker and being the same property devised under Item Two of the last Will and Testament of

J. T. McCafferty, Plaintiff. Further prays an account of rents and profits of said estate from the time of the death of Christina McCafferty until partition be made.

Said parties are required to answer on or before the 1st day of</

all He wanted to do was sell tomatoes but He helped make You HEALTHY the Year 'Round

AD-SHOPPING MAKES YOUR BUYING DOLLAR GO MUCH FARTHER!

Ever play the game of ad-shopping? It's a great pastime and a grand time-and-money saver. Just make a list of what you want and need. Then check your list against the things you see advertised in the Daily Herald. Compare prices to your heart's content. Make note of anything you see advertised that you may have overlooked in planning your shopping list. Now you're ready to go—without wasting the day tramping endlessly from one store to another. You'll come home fresh as a daisy.

Oh, but wait! Just add up the prices of the advertised items you are going to buy. Good deal less than you thought it would be, isn't it? That's what puts the BIGGEST THRILL in ad-shopping! You usually have enough money left over to buy something extra-nice and personal for yourself!

KEEP POSTED ON WAYS to BETTER LIVING with
the ADVERTISEMENTS in . . . .

NOT so many years ago the round, red fruit of a certain vine was called a "love-apple." A man in his right mind would no more eat it than he would go out and munch a toadstool. It was supposed to kill you at the very first bite! Then some hardy soul decided to "bite and see!" And so the delicious tomato was introduced to a hungry-world.

But news of the tomato traveled very slowly. Your children might not be keeping healthy with it today if a grocer somewhere in an old-fashioned town hadn't been "stuck" with a bushel or two. Faced with a loss if they rotted, he threw discretion to the winds and ran an ad in the paper.

"TOMATOES FOR SALE. This fine new fruit said to be excellent for the health and complexion. I have a choice few. Fifteen cents apiece."

Mr. Grocer sold the lot, ordered more, sold those and presently was able to cut his price in half and then some while babies waxed fat on tomato juice.

CONVENIENCES GRANDMA NEVER DREAMED OF

As with tomatoes, so with vacuum cleaners safety razors, oil burners and the latest hat from Paris. The merchants who advertise them to you have no burning desire to make this world a healthier, smarter, more leisurely place to live in. They want to sell vacuum cleaners, safety razors, oil burners and lovely hats—and advertising is the best way to do it. But their advertising has told you about a lot of things you'd hate to be without today. Their advertising has introduced you to comforts and conveniences your grandmother never even dreamed of! And—because all wise buyers read advertising—Mr. Merchant sells more advertised goods and can keep on lowering the price to you.

Reads like a romance, doesn't it? But you can prove it for yourself. As you check through the ads in the Daily Herald today just count the number of things that make life pleasant which you might never have heard of if you hadn't seen them in the ads. And count the number of things you'd like to buy but couldn't afford (like tomatoes at fifteen cents apiece) if advertising hadn't made them so cheap and plentiful.

Perhaps you'll agree—we could get along without advertising—along with tomatoes and fountain pens and electric fans and swell silk stockings at 69c.

But, honest—wouldn't it be a tiresome old world?

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

Pickaway County's Daily NEWSpaper